Hess Wins, Destroys GOP Hopes Of Sweep

by CHARLES JOHNSTON
Managing Editor

For incumbent political office holders, the best surprise is no surprise. The Tuesday election proved to be an incumbent's dream. All who were on Lake County ballots won.

The only race that was ever in serious doubt in Lake County was for county clerk. After taking a huge early lead, incumbent Democratic Linda Hess hung on in what turned out to be a bit of nail biter to win reelection. With 387 of 395 precincts counted, Hess had 48,183 votes or 51.5 percent to Republican challenger Donna-Mae Litwiler's 45,436 votes (48.5 percent).

In that race, the eastern Lake County precincts made a big difference, giving Hess a two-to-one margin to start off with. Although Hess' margin continually declined throughout the night, she was successful in gaining more support in West Lake County than any Democrat besides former county clerk Grace Mary Stern.

Democratic Party Chairman Jay Ukena saw Tuesday's results as a hopeful sign for

Nov. 6 Meeting To Decide Walk Out

by GLORIA DAVIS

This is the week that will tell the story as to the direction the Antioch High School teacher-contract negotiations will go.

The teachers union, having already filed an intent to strike, has voted to physically strike on Friday, Nov. 7, if the two negotiating teams don't come to an agreement at a meeting on Thursday, Nov. 6.

The board has held an information meeting and if things do not go well on Nov. 5, the school doors will be locked.

The teachers have been calling for binding arbitration. The board has steadfastly refused to even consider "having an outsider decide on something that will greatly affect this community."

Both sides have done a lot of give and take during the negotiations which started in March. Reports have the salary increase, considered by most people to be the biggest stumbling block, going from a 20 percent request from the teachers to 17 percent and an 8 percent offer from the board to 14 percent over two years.

The teachers are calling for a complete package agreement on five major points. The board and the teachers are reported to have come to an agreement of sorts on four of those points: pay for cafeteria supervision; a statement of concern about class size; fair share (all teachers paying for the cost of negotiations) and paying for lay people to relieve Allendale teachers for one-half hour per month to attend teacher union meetings at the high school.

Neither side claims to be perfectly satisfied with these four points as they stand but are willing to go with them.

The teachers say they'll accept the board's offers on these if the salary increase meets their request.

The board will stick by those offers if the teachers will go along with their offer of a 7 percent increase, each year over a two-year span.

The teachers did a little campaigning for their side at Saturday's football game. Reports are that they also sent out letters to parents giving their side of the story.

Long-time school board President Bob Lindblad, whose son-in-law is teacher at the high school, has checked with legal counsel to see where he should stand when it comes down to a final vote in connection with a possible conflict of interest.

He was advised that no conflict of interest exists. "It's never been a problem before," he said.

He does admit however, that he has been told that people have been told to pressure him in particular to come to an agreement.

In the National Education Assn. (biggest union in the world)'s handbook there is a chapter on pressuring any board member who may have relatives working for the school.

ACHS Fares Well In Report Card

As required by state law, Antioch Community High School released its annual school report card. The report card will be distributed once each year in October, beginning in 1986. It contains information about school finances, the instructional setting, and student characteristics.

The data in the report card was gathered during the 1985-86 school year, with some of the financial information dating back to 1984-85.

Of the 1,720 students attending ACHS, 3.6 percent are from low-income level families. Studies have shown that students from low-income families sometimes do not perform as well in school as their classmates. The state average is a much higher 23.7 percent.

There might be a link between ACHS's special education enrollment and its attendance rate, since it is often true that special education students don't always get to school. 5.2 percent of the students at ACHS are enrolled in special education classes, 1.7 percent above the state average.

A 100 percent attendance rate would mean that every student would attend school everyday. ACHS's rate is 93.2 percent, 0.4 percent below the state average. Again, this might be due to the high percentage of special education students.

The student mobility rate indicates how many students left or entered ACHS during the school year. It was 13.1 percent of the students at ACHS that came or went, while the state average is 20.8 percent.

The number of students at ACHS who are enrolled in college preparatory classes, at 56 percent, is only one-tenth of a percent higher

Regional Champs

Season Ends

Antioch's volleyball team saw its season end Tuesday night at the Waukegan East sectional tournament.

The Sequoits' season ended with a 15-8, 15-13 loss to the host Bulldogs.

Waukegan East was overwhelming in game one, gaining a 12-2 lead before the Sequoits made it respectable.

The hosts jumped off to a 5-0 lead in game two. After a 10-4 Waukegan East lead, Antioch came to within one at 10-9 behind the serving of Sherry Waldroup.

Antioch eventually tied the game at 12-12 before Waukegan East took over.

Antioch, Round Lake regional champs, finished at 13-16.

For details on the regional title, see sports.

New Laws Prohibit Burning Of Leaves

There's one thing that autumn never lacks: fallen leaves. And with these fallen leaves comes the desire to get rid of them. But recent changes in both village ordinances and state laws prohibit open burning.

Effective January 1, 1986, the 84th General Assembly in Springfield amended the Illinois Environmental Protection Act to read: "prohibiting of open burning of leaves and related landscape waste in counties with a population of over 400,000."

"This includes the County of Lake. Such burning is permitted only upon obtaining a permit from the IEPA," concluded the statement. The Village of Antioch has also amended its leaf burning ordinance to eliminate all open burning within the village limits.

"In essence," said Asst. Chief Wayne Parthun, "the traditional burning of leaves and landscape waste is no longer permitted in our area." He further commented that he hopes that residents of the village and township will follow these new rulings. If they do, perhaps unnecessary grass and field fires could be eliminated.

Chief Mapletorpe supports these changes, and in so doing wants to remind the area residents of the number of unnecessary grass and field fires that occurred earlier this year. "One of these fires," said Mapletorpe, "caused a serious eye injury to one of our firefighters."

Questions concerning the IEPA ruling should be directed to their office in Springfield at 1-217-782-5562. If a resident of the village or township has any questions concerning open burning, direct them to the Antioch Fire Dept.-Fire Prevention Bureau at (312) 395-8585. Tuesday through Thursday from 9 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., call (312) 395-5511.

A safe fall season against accidental fires is the responsibility of each Antioch resident, and Fire Prevention Bureau Chief Parthun asks for everyone's cooperation.

than the state average. 27.1 percent of the students are enrolled in general education courses, while the remaining 16.9 percent take vocational classes.

ACHS's performance statistics are generally higher than state averages. 2.9 percent of the students don't get promoted to the next grade. The state average is higher at 5.1 percent. A substantial 85 percent of the students at ACHS graduate, compared to 76.3 percent throughout the state.

The students at ACHS also performed well on the ACT test. They scored above the state average in all four test categories, and their composite score is almost a full percentage point above the state average. Those students who planned on attending college scored well in the ACT, finishing with a composite score that exceeded the state average.

The 23 students who took the SAT test at ACHS also surpassed state averages. They scored 1010 on the test, while students throughout the state scored an average of 985 points.

In the instructional setting category, ACHS had mixed results. The average class size is 23.7 students, higher than the state average of 20.3 percent. The number of students enrolled in math, science and English classes at ACHS are lower than state averages, with social science being the only class to have more students than state averages.

The pupil to teacher ratio at ACHS is 20.9 to 1, higher than the state average of 18.3 to 1. The pupil to administrator average, however, at 191.1 to 1 is lower than the state average.

The average salary for a teacher at ACHS during the 1985-86 school year was $29,477, over $2,000 above the state average. The average administrator's salary at ACHS was $47,391, compared to $41,284 throughout the state. ACHS spent $3,702 per student in the 1984-85 school year, slightly higher than the state average at $3,526.

The total fund of expenditures at ACHS is $6,142,692. Of this, 77.5 percent is spent on education, which is very close to the state average of 77.3 percent. The rest of the money is budgeted to operations and building maintenance, transportation, and municipal retirement.

Those with questions about the report card can call the school at (312) 395-1421.

Walk Out

After the Nov. 6 meeting, the board vote will be taken. It will take four out of seven votes to carry any motion on a recommendation from the three members of the negotiating teams.

Negotiating for the board are Tom Fisher, Frank Walsh and . Working for an agreement from the teachers are Dick Olson, Norm Hahn and Mike Gordy.

If an agreement for both sides is made on Nov. 6, the negotiators will then return to their respective full boards for a final vote.

"If they go out on strike on Friday, that will mean Monday too probably, then Tuesday is a holiday, so that's only two days," said Lindblad, adding, "I expect by Wednesday some of the teachers will be doing a little rethinking of their position."

Lambs To Hold Bazaar

Santa Claus will host The Lambs' annual Christmas Bazaar at Lambs Farm in Libertyville from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m., Saturday and Sunday, Nov. 15 and 16.

More than 40 artists and craftsmen will be selling hand-crafted items, ranging from stained glass and ceramics to woodworking and quilted items at a variety of prices.

Proceeds from the sale will directly benefit The Lambs, a private, not-for-profit program for mentally retarded adults.

The Lambs is located at the junction of I-94 and Rte. 176, two miles east of Libertyville. The show will be held in the banquet rooms of The Lambs Country Inn. Parking and admission to the show are free.

The bazaar showroom will be richly decorated with Christmas ideas, and Santa's elves will be there to assist shoppers. To make the festive mood complete, children will be able to visit with Santa.

Christmas gift ideas also abound at The Lambs' Pet Shop and Aunt Mary's Country Store and Bakery Nook, where a wide variety of delicious and attractive homemade items are available.

Handscreened Christmas cards by the men and women in The Lambs' program are for sale at the Persimmon Tree Card and Gift Shop. Lambs' Sweet Street Ice Cream Parlour and Pastry Shop will be serving their homemade ice cream favorites.

All the shops and The Lambs Country Inn Restaurant will be open both days of the Christmas Gift Bazaar. These businesses serve as vocational training centers for the adults in The Lambs' program.

For more information about the Christmas Gift Bazaar, call Lambs' events hotline at (312) 362-6774.

Library Offers Flood Prevention Materials

Information on coping with flood damage has been gathered by the reference staff at the Warren-Newport Public Library in Gurnee.

The material is available for giveaway, checkout, or photocopying, according to Tom Sievers, reference librarian.

Much of the material deals with specific instructions on how to clean and dry out household furnishings, which seems to be the most sought-after information, Sievers said.

"We were able to get a number of copies of the pamphlet 'Protect Your Home

From Flood Damage" to give away," Sievers added.

"And we have also photocopied some of the most useful pages from the pamphlet as giveaways."

Some of the other material may be checked out; other items are on loan from the North Suburban Library System reference service and must be used in the library. However, Sievers pointed out that any of the material may be photocopied.

For further information, call the library at (312) 244-

5150 and ask to speak to reference librarian.

A Grateful Nation Remembers Is Theme

"A Grateful Nation Remembers," is this year's Veteran's Day theme, administrator of Veterans Affairs, Thomas K. Turnage has announced. "We are, on this day, honoring the men and women whose dedication and service has helped preserve freedom for all of us," he said.

Turnage, who serves as Veterans Day National Committee Chairman, urged Americans to pay tribute to the nearly 28 million living veterans who have served their country in uniforms and to the more than one million who died during wartime service.

"While the Veterans Administration is the means by which all Americans are able to express the spirit of Veterans Day year round, it is on this special day we all can gather to voice our gratitude," he said.

The observance of Veterans Day goes back to 1921 when an American soldier, his name "known but to God," was buried in Arlington National Cemetery. The burial site of this unknown World War I soldier became the personification of dignity and reverence for America's veterans.

Similar ceremonies occurred earlier in England and France, where an unknown soldier was buried in each nation's highest place of honor: in England at Westminster Abby; in France at the Arc De Triomphe.

These memorial gestures all took place on Nov. 11, giving universal recognition to the celebrated ending of World War I hostilities at 11 a.m., Nov. 11, 1918—the 11th hour on the 11th day of the 11th month. The day became known as "Armistice Day."

If the idealistic hope had been realized that World War I was "The war to end all wars," Nov. 11 might still be called Armistice Day. But shortly after the holiday was proclaimed, World War II broke out in Europe and shattered that dream.

More than 16 million Americans served during World War II and more than 400,000 died in service during that period. The families and friends of these dead longed for a way to honor their memory—to honor veterans of all wars.

An answer to the dilemma of how to pay tribute to those who had served in this latest great war came in a proposal made by Kansas Congressman Edwin K. Reese. He introduced legislation to change Armistice Day to Veterans Day and make this an occasion to honor those who have served America in all wars.

President Eisenhower, in 1954, signed the bill proclaiming Nov. 11 as Veterans Day, and he called for Americans everywhere to rededicate themselves to the cause of peace.

Additional significance was added to Veterans Day in 1958, when two more unidentified American War dead, one from World War II and the other from the Korean Conflict, were brought to Arlington Cemetery from overseas, and interred alongside the other unidentified dead at the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier.

From 1971 to 1975, Veterans Day was observed on the fourth Monday in October in compliance with a 1968 law that changed most national holidays to Mondays.

Believing, however, that the Nov. 11 date held great significance for this country, Congress passed a law in 1975 which returned the holiday to Nov. 11. The law became effective in 1978, the 60th anniversary of the World War I armistice.

Blacktop Miltmore Roads

Residents of West Miltmore in Lake Villa Twp. are being treated to newly blacktopped roads by the township highway department.

According to Gene Morris, Miltmore property owner, after 14 years of paying taxes and suffering with bad roads, the people living in that area are finally being thought of.

The highway department has blacktopped parts of Marys Dr., and James Dr. and this week is involved in laying new storm sewer pipes in an effort to relieve the long-time flooding problems.

"They're really doing a great job. I've lived here for 14 years and through two road commissioners and the present one (Jim Semmerling) is the only one that has ever done anything for us," Morris said.

Morris claims that surface water filed his septic tank several times during the flooding and he has had to pay to have it emptied.

The Ancient Art Of Spinning Is Thriving

by CINDY KUJAK

In July, something new was added to the country aura of Wauconda Orchards. The Wool Consortium, on the upper level of the barn, is a menagerie of wools, yarns, beautiful sweaters, and other products made of natural fibers.

Anne DeFord is in charge of this unique workshop. The Long Grove woman, along with seven other instructors she met through a fiber arts guild, share with others their knowledge of crafts including spinning, dyeing, weaving, tapestry, crocheting, knitting, and basketry and more.

The loft is equipped with four floor looms and seven spinning wheels. One of the looms is for tapestry and rug-weaving; one for basic weaving and another for complicated patterns; and finally, one for rag rug weaving.

The two antique spinning wheels certainly add to the rustic hominess of the shop. The contemporary wheels don't look like spinning wheels, but they really do the job well, says DeFord. There are two basic types of wheels—one spins fine fibers and yarns; the other, worsted or bulky yarns.

DeFord raises her own sheep on a small farm and sends some of the wool away to be processed. However, much of it is dyed and spun at the shop. Besides her own, the "lady of the loft" uses wool produced locally in northern Illinois and Wisconsin.

A real eye-catcher in the shop is a vest of Icelandic sheepskin, made by one of the instructors, which sells for $300. It's the softest, most beautiful piece of apparel imaginable. DeFord says the shop will soon have bed-covers made from the Icelandic sheepskin.

Although wool is the most popular fiber at The Wool Consortium, others include silk, angora and mohair. Plaid and striped blanket stoles, some handspun and hand-dyed, and some hand-woven on looms, are available.

Handwoven items are accepted on consignment, as long as they fit into the natural fiber category, which is the shop's specialty.

DeFord regrets that at present the shop has not gone into men's apparel, but hopes to see this happen soon.

DeFord discovered spinning, the "love of her life," about seven years ago when she took a class at Lakewood Forest Preserve in Wauconda. She says that as a child she enjoyed doing things with her hands.

While in high school she studied silversmithing and jewelry at the Contemporary Artwork Shop in Chicago. She majored in art at Syracuse University in New York, but ended up graduating from Northwestern with a degree in English Literature. She says the English comes in very handy when writing ads, etc., and the art is useful in designing brochures.

DeFord and her instructors are members of the Thistle-down Guild, a fiber arts guild for spinners and weavers. The group meets at Cook Memorial Library in Libertyville once a month.

DeFord has two children and an aged parent living with her. She raises dairy goats on the farm as well as sheep, so you can see she has a busy life outside of her spinning.

Most of the classes at The Wool Consortium are at beginner's level. Prices vary with the amount of time involved, and materials are provided for some of the classes. For more information about the classes, call the shop at (312) 526-5847.

All the classes sound interesting, but the one that really made my ears perk up was the one for handspun tube socks, guaranteed to toast your toes. Now that's something I could really get into!

Stay At Foxmoor And Learn To Make Jelly

by GLORIA DAVIS

The concept of "Bed and Breakfast," a more economical and homey way of furnishing travelers with overnight lodging, is not a new one.

In fact it may be considered a very old one if compared to the old rooming or boarding house idea.

When travelers choose to stay at a "Bed and Breakfast" instead of the typical motel, they are welcomed into a private home, given private sleeping quarters, often allowed the run of other parts of the house, and given a hearty breakfast before they go on their way, all for about half the price of a chain motel's stereotyped lodging alone.

A "Bed and Breakfast" has opened in western Kenosha County, off Fox River Rd., south of the Fox River Park.

As one is heading south on Fox River Rd., the attractive sign designating Foxmoor, Bed and Breakfast, can be seen on the righthand side.

Those interested will turn down a gravel road for a short while before they come upon a large rambling farm house set amid huge old trees with even a smattering of cows to complete the country scene.

Foxmoor, so called because of the mist and fog reminding one of the fabled English moors that often settles in the area, is typical Wisconsin Country. The fact that many foxes can be found roaming the acreage makes it a perfect name for the farm.

Owner Marilyn Mayer, although she is an integral part of the country scene, in reality was a high school teacher in Chicago and a business woman for many years.

"I started this thing because I thought it would be a fun way to meet people without leaving the home I love," she said before giving this reporter the grand tour.

A house-wide screened in porch surrounds the entranceway which leads into a huge farm kitchen, complete with worn chopping block, antique hutch and hanging copper pots and pans.

"Our guests are welcome to join in the day's activity, baking, making jelly or canning," Mayer says.

She especially likes the "Breakfast" part of her business. "I love to cook everything and anything," she adds. Her guests have the privilege of ordering just that, everything and anything for breakfast, which she is willing to serve them anytime they designate.

Guests are also welcome to walk Foxmoor's acreage, count the cows, and pet the dog and cat, to complete their country stay.

Welcome To Foxmoor

To add to the Victorian country feeling of the Mayer home, there's a lot of stained glass, the woodburning stove in the den (which guests are welcomed to use), rock walls and slate and wood floors. The second floor, which houses the three to four bedrooms plus bath available, reeks of Mr. Clean and crisp cozy quilts.

Two of the bedrooms are booked together, suite-style, perfect for a family, since one has to pass through one to get to the other.

Mayer is even willing to book her own bedroom, complete with king-size brass bed, if needed.

Mayer's prices are a very easy on the wallet, $25 for single and $35 for double occupancy.

When asked how she feels about having "strangers" stay overnight in her home, she said, "Most people are honest, I'm just playing that by ear, anyway if there's any trouble, I'm a helluva shot!"

Intending to advertise further, she presently is listed with the surrounding Chamber of Commerce offices and in the latest issue of "Wisconsin Tales and Trails." Interested? Just call (414) 862-6161.

Grand Hotel Rehearsing Old Time Melodrama

"Fireman. Save My Child!" an old-fashioned melodrama, is being presented for six consecutive Friday and Saturday evenings at the Grand Hotel Restaurant and Theater in Wauconda, beginning Nov. 7 at 8:45 p.m. Directed by Terrie Snell, "Fireman, Save My Child!" provides the audience with an opportunity to step back in time to when villains were their most despicable, heroes were their most daring, and heroines were their most fragile.

Cast members include: Janet Crop of Mundelein, Pat and Don Crop of Mundelein, Brad Davidson of Mt. Prospect, Bethany Evans of Algonquin, Dorrell and Gary Koon of Huntley, and Tammy Wetzel of Elgin.

These actors and actresses expect the audience to join the fun by booing, hissing, cheering and clapping.

"Fireman. Save My Child!" opens the second season of theater offerings at the Grand Hotel. Tickets are $8 per person, and curtain time is planned so that theater-goers may eat either before or after the performance, if they wish. Master Card and Visa are accepted.

For ticket information or dining and group reservations, call (312) 526-5582. The show runs through Dec. 13.

Church Sets Film Series

Over 50 million parents have been inspired by Dr. James Dobson's "Focus on the Family" film series. Now, building on that nationwide groundswell of interest, Word Publishing and Focus on the Family, Inc., have released "Turn

Your Heart Toward Home."

The first discussion-provoking film of this six-part series, "A Father Looks Back," will be shown at Millburn Grade School on Sunday, Nov. 9 at 6:30 p.m.

The remaining five films will be shown Nov. 16 through Dec. 14.

A nursery will be provided, and refreshments and discussion time will follow each film. Parking will be in the rear of Millburn Grade School; entrance will be in the west side doors.

Call For Election Of Judges

by MARK BENNO

In a press conference held on Friday, Lake County State's Atty. Fred Foreman called for a system which would provide for the merit election of judges. This merit election system would attempt to deal with some of the serious issues brought to light by the Greyford investigation in Chicago.

Foreman said the system would preserve the right of the public to choose their judges, as well as to insure competency on the bench. "I believe that it is extremely important that the citizens of this state elect qualified and competent judges. I am also concerned about politics in the judiciary and the politics of influential individuals participating in the selection of judges," said Foreman.

He continued that, "given the position as a law enforcement official and practicing attorney, I prefer the merit election by the general public over the merit selection of a few influential attorneys as the vehicle for selecting our judges."

Foreman was involved in many debates concerning this issue as a member of the Greyford Subcommittee of the Illinois State Bar Assn. As a result of this participation, Foreman has made the following recommendations. He believes that judges should run on a non-partisan ballot. He said that the label of Democrat or Republican politicizes the judicial selection process.

Foreman is in favor of establishing a statewide judicial nomination authority that will represent all members of society. This authority would be comprised of judges, attorneys, prosecutors, public defenders, and representatives of the public and law enforcement.

Attorneys interested in being certified as judicial candidates would submit their credentials to this authority. The authority would then certify satisfactory candidates for the election process. Standards for certification would be established by the authority and other branches of government.

Foreman said only those candidates certified by the judicial nomination authority would be eligible for placement on the ballot. Non-partisan candidates would participate in an election primary, to be followed by a run-off election during the general election.

Candidates for associate judges would be selected from the same list of qualified candidates. The Supreme Court or the local Circuit judges would appoint these judges. Every six years, Foreman proposed, elected judges would be reviewed for retention by the judicial nomination authority. These judges would be automatically retained if the standards were met. If the authority did not recommend a judge for retention, then that judge would have to run for retention on the ballot.

Foreman commented that the standards for selection of judges should include consideration of a diversified practice in the area of both public and private law. Attorneys seeking to be certified should have a minimum of at least 10 years of practice. He also felt that mandatory continuing legal education in the area of ethics and professional responsibility should be offered for judicial candidates.

"I am submitting these recommendations for the purpose of debate," said Foreman. "I have yet to see a merit selection plan which does not favor selection of judges by a very few prominent individuals. One need only look at the recent nomination process for Justices Rehnquist and Scalia to observe the politics played at that level of selection. I submit to my colleagues that there must be a better way to select our judges that will insure that they be accountable, not only to a few prominent people, but also to the people that they must judge."

Both Foreman and Senator Adeline Geo-Karis believe that the merit selection process is an inadequate way to select judges. Geo-Karis said that, "there's no true merit in the merit selection process."

The essence of Foreman's argument is that the voters, not certain individuals, have the final say in who is presiding over Lake County's benches. He pointed out in his experience with the Greyford trials that there was "just as much as if not more corruption with the appointed judges as opposed to the elected judges."

The merit election of judges has yet to be approved, but Foreman strongly believes that, "the people should have a say-so of who their judges are."

County Fair Group Will Hold Meeting

The Lake County Fair Assn. will hold its annual meeting and election on Monday, Nov. 17, in the cafeteria building at the fairgrounds at 8 p.m.

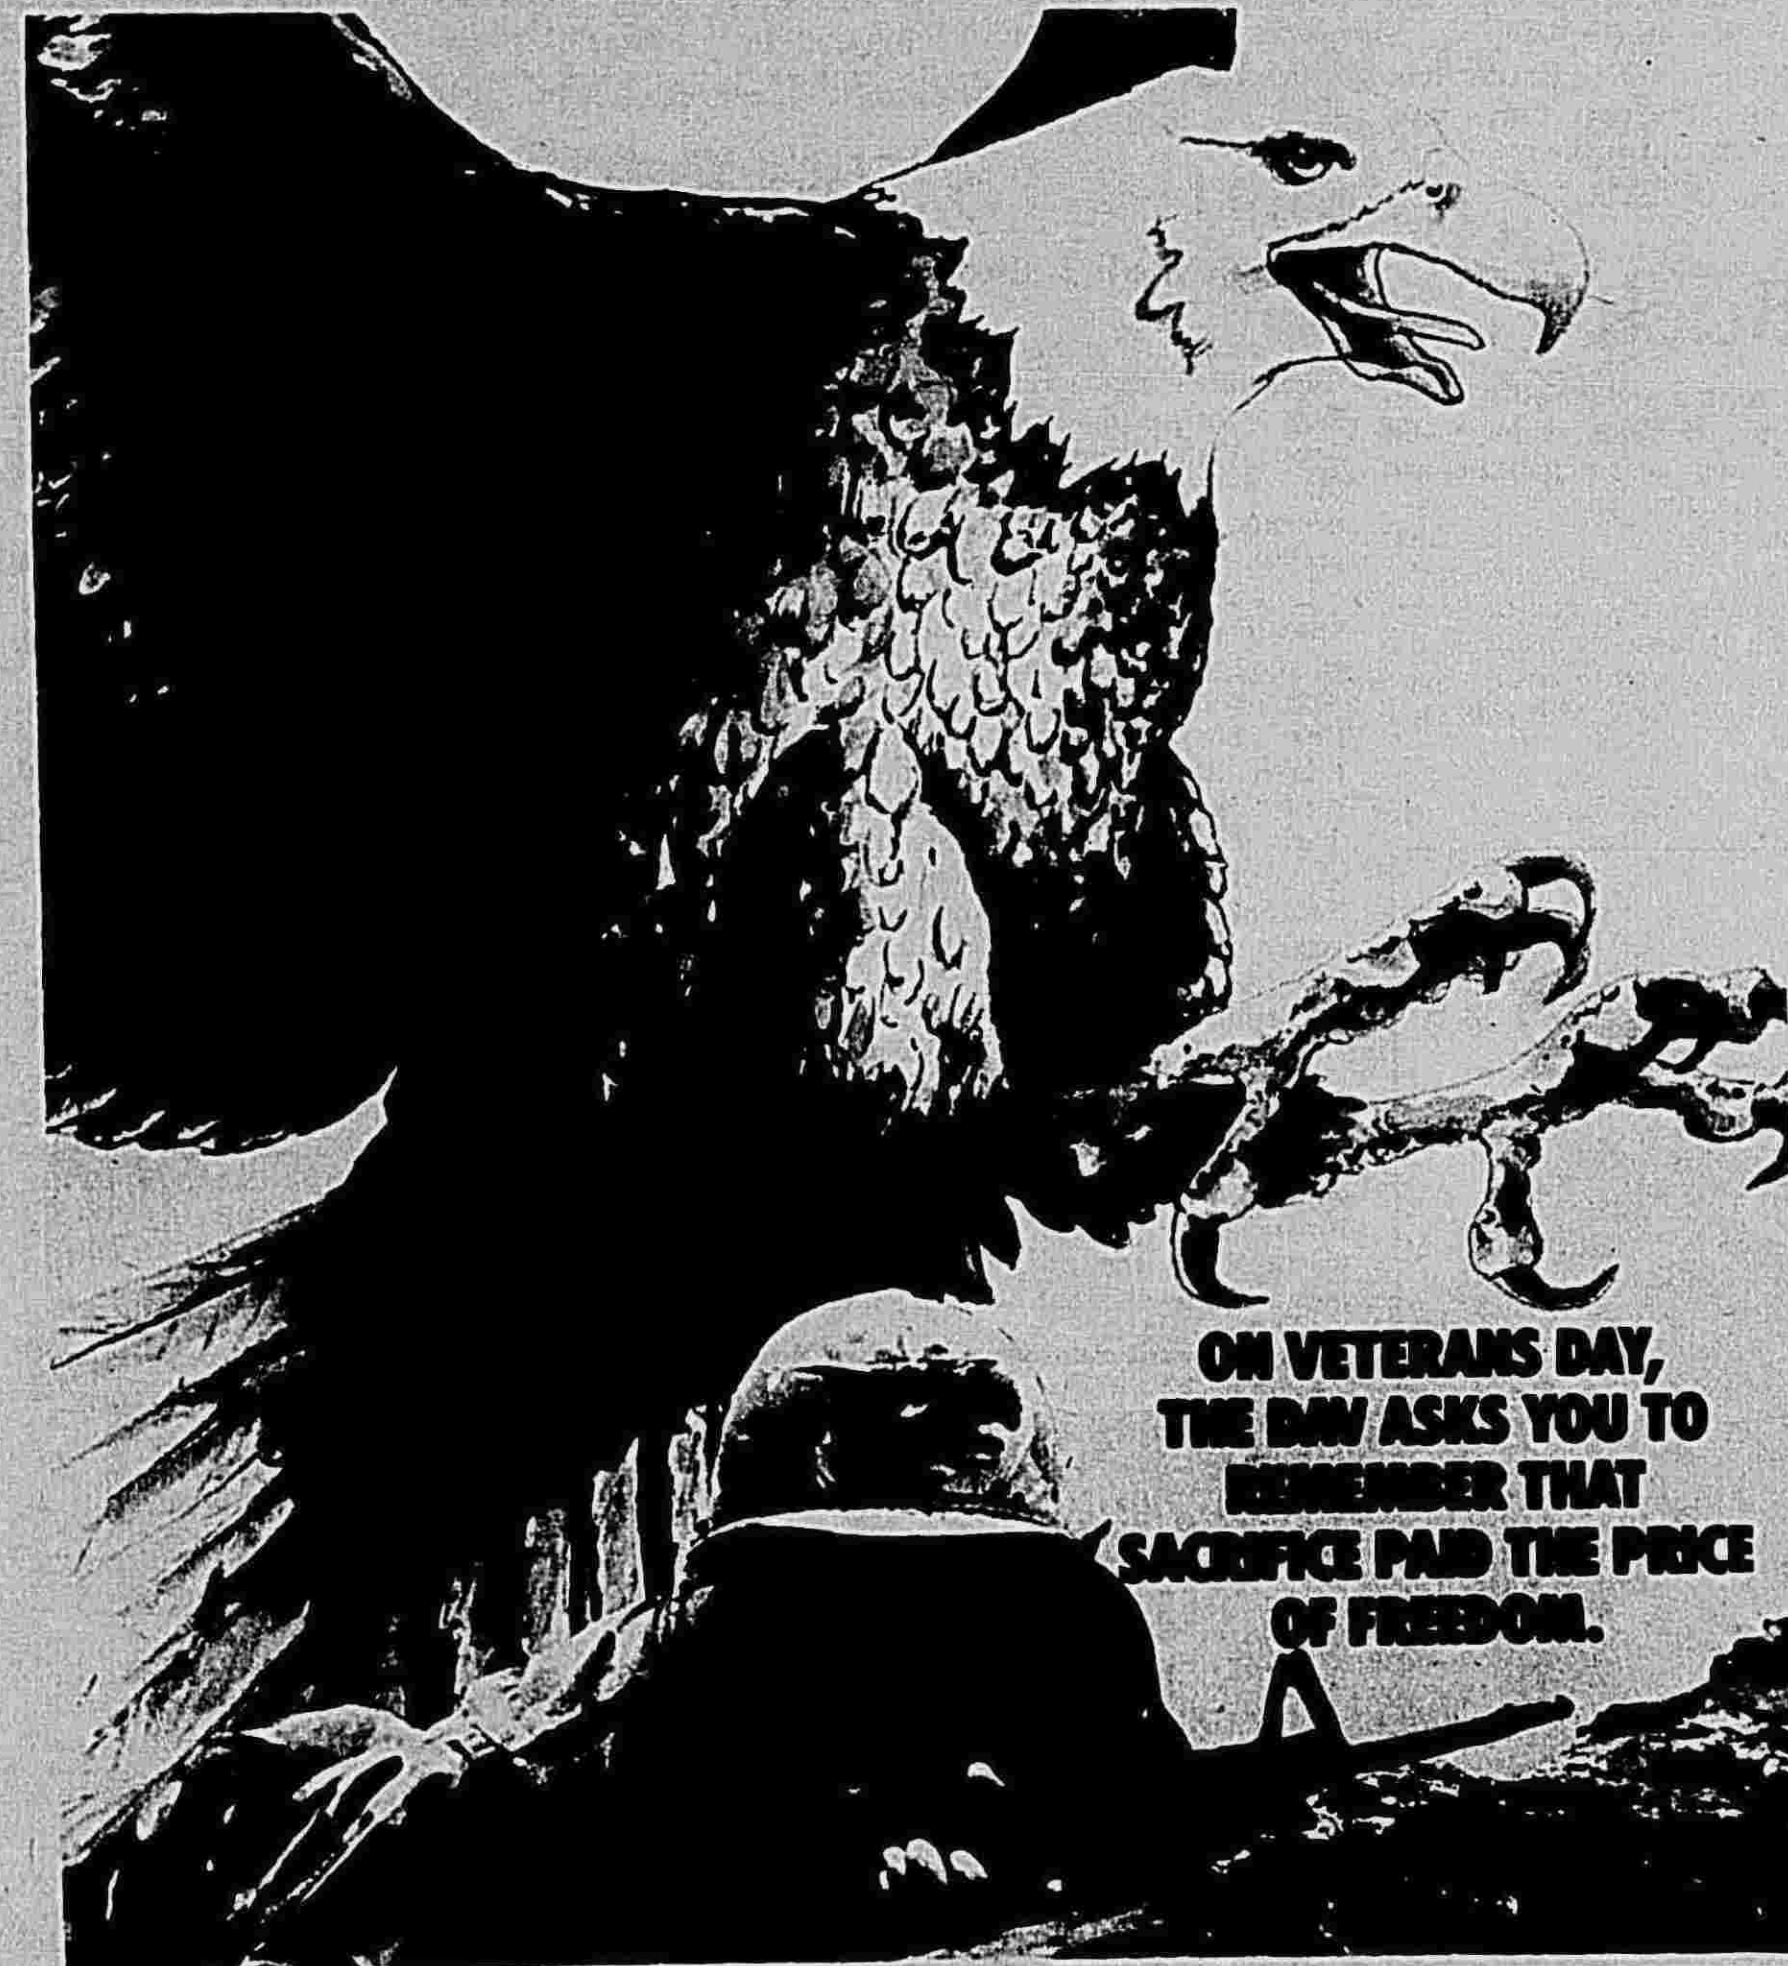

The terms of three directors expire this year: Ronald Weidner, president; Walter Krumrey, secretary; and Earl Pegelow. The nominating committee will present its slate of candidates at the meeting.

In addition to the election of three directors, Fair Assn. members will hear reports from President Weidner, Secretary Krumrey, Treasurer John McNeill, and from fair superintendents. A discussion will be held about the 1986 fair. Suggestions for improving the 1987 fair, which is scheduled for July 29 through Aug. 2, will be heard.

Entertainment will be provided by Susan Becker, Mundelein, winner of the adult division of the 1986 Fair Talent Contest; and the Ray Sisters (Tabra and Jeanette) of Antioch, finalists in the same contest.

The Lake County Fair Assn. is a not-for-profit corporation. Membership is open to any Lake County resident who has an interest in the fair and agriculture. Members must purchase a membership ticket for $7.50.

Good Goal, Bad Idea

Some activists out in Lake Villa are taking the old political trick of "gerrymandering" and carrying it to new heights. As most people know, gerrymandering is the art of taking a political district and carving out tortuous and twisted boundaries in order to give an advantage to the political party in power.

In Lake Villa, activists have decided that the best way to preserve open space is to create a new village that would cover most of the unincorporated area of Lake Villa Twp. and parts of Avon and Antioch Twps. The new village, Liberty Lakes, would wrap around the existing villages of Lake Villa and Lindenhurst like a sleeping boa constrictor.

The idea is that the village would be governed by wise environmentalists, dedicated to preserving the pristine open spaces that now exist in many parts of Lake Villa Twp.

Preserving open space is an admirable goal. This convoluted method of trying to accomplish it puzzles us, though. There will be no environmental philosopher king appointed to rule over this new village; it will have to go through the annoying process of elections like other villages. What guarantee do the organizers of this movement have that high-minded environmentalists will sweep all the offices?

If taken on its merits as a new village and nothing more, this proposal makes little sense. The boundaries are simply slapped down around almost everything that is not already a village.

As a device to control development, it is even worse. If successful, the only things this proposal would guarantee is that new development would not go to the villages of Lake Villa and Lindenhurst and that Round Lake Beach could come no further north. Whether or not the officials of Liberty Lakes would share the organizers' zeal for preserving open space would not be known until after elections were held. If elected officials decided they wanted vigorous growth, it would be too late for organizers to say that that was not what they had in mind.

We think that if a group wants to form a village, it should make a good proposal and submit it to voters. If a group wants to preserve open space, then it should attack the problem directly. This roundabout proposal makes for neither a good village nor an effective method of preserving open space.

A Special Veterans' Day

As we prepare to celebrate another Veterans' Day next Tuesday, Nov. 11, we should be thankful that the scars of Vietnam are finally healing. In Illinois, an initiative to erect a smaller version of the Washington Vietnam Memorial in Springfield is well underway. Chicago hosted an emotional "Welcome Home" parade for the veterans of that unpopular war.

The debate over whether Vietnam was or was not a just war continues, though academic detachment has replaced the painful passion of a decade ago. What we all have come to understand, though, is that regardless of the answer to that debate, the men and women who chose to serve their country acted honorably and with the highest level of selflessness.

Those men and women who chose to serve went in with the knowledge that their decision would mean several years of hardship, the possibility of capture, and perhaps even the loss of their own lives. They cared enough about their country to accept the risks that their decision entailed.

The men in the foxholes don't set policy. They carry out orders. It is the only way to run an effective military. When men choose to enter those foxholes, they do so in the hope that their country and superiors will do what is right. Even more, they commit themselves to do what they are told, with faith that even if their superiors do what is wrong, their country will always strive to do right.

Let us always remember that it is honorable to forsake the self for a time in order to defend one's country. We believe in this country that peace is a great goal, but that freedom is a more noble one. Even in as painful a war as Vietnam, the recruits sought the noble goal of preserving freedom.

This is not just another Veterans' Day. It is special because, for the first time since Vietnam, all veterans can share equally in the honor of having served well.

Step Forward, Step Back

The more modern education advances, the more it looks like school houses of the past. That isn't regression, as far as we're concerned, because a good many things in education, considered archaic in the "progressive" years, served pretty well.

Mundelein Elementary School, for example, will combine a first and second grade to deal with an enrollment imbalance at the same time it relieves some economic pressures. Shades of the one-room school!

Not so surprising, the amalgamation has kicked off some fretting and stewing on the part of teachers. Board members anguished over the change and a few parents are questioning the merger, one of seven-count'em-options offered by Supt. Dick Lanaghan to deal with the enrollment problem. Least concerned about the combined class are the children themselves. We predict that they will do quite nicely. Once again, education moves forward by taking a backward step!

Editor's Viewpoint

Color It Red--- Farm Couple's New Dairy Barn

by BILL SCHROEDER

Red still is the best color for a barn.

That's as far as Al and Gwen Ames are concerned. They never had any doubt about the color of their new dairy barn going up on Rte. 173.

As a modern farm couple, Al and Gwen are Lake County's link to an agricultural past when the rich topsoil hereabouts was growing hay and grain for stock instead of strip centers and town houses.

Even a devastating fire last January, which leveled a stately white dairy barn more than 100 feet long, didn't deter the Ames' from doing the job they love and know best, tending a herd of prize Holstein dairy cattle.

The new barn, containing ultra-modern feed conveyors and stainless steel milk transport piping, will be one story. Today's barns are built without haylofts. And it will be red---just like all barns should be.

"Our old barn was dad's barn. It was white. This is our barn so we wanted it to be our color---red," explained Gwen. Al grinned. Apparently farm wives have the say-so on color schemes for barns even as they do for decorating the living room.

CELEBRATION---Corks will be popping Friday, Nov. 7, and rightly so when Rockenbach Chevrolet celebrates its 60th birthday and grand reopening after extensive remodeling work. The dealership is one of Lake County's oldest automobile establishments.

Owner Doug Rockenbach said he gave consideration to a new relocation while drafting expansion plans, but finally decided to remodel at the same spot on Rte. 120 where his father founded the business. As someone mentioned, "That's Rockenbach Corner." As a softy for tradition, we think Doug made the right decision.

FLOOD WOES---Scores of householders and business people still are digging out from problems connected with the September floods. Bob Morrison, owner of the Globe Dept. stores, mentioned that staple merchandise stored in a basement warehouse on N. Lewis Ave. was under six feet of water at the height of the water woes. The Globe also had Christmas decorations stored in the same place. Besides restocking, Globe moved quickly to replace decorations for the Christmas shopping season which is almost upon us.

COMING EVENT---State Rep. Robert and Mrs. Churchill are expecting their first child with the New Year. Congratulations. The Lake Villa Republican said he doesn't anticipate a race with the stork because House Democrats will be more interested in the Chicago mayoralty than business in Springfield. That means Bob will be able to get sworn in and then return home to get the nursery ready. Mrs. Churchill was a good trooper on the campaign trail throughout the fall helping get her husband reelected.

ONE MAN'S FAMILY---Muddy football pants and sweaty t-shirts will be absent from the laundry room now that football season is over. Bob and his Carmel High teammates closed out the season with the school's best record in 14 years. Now our football watching will be confined to the tube, wondering whether the Bears can repeat and if the Pack will survive the 1986 season.

Letter To The Editor:

Give Schools A Chance

Editor:

At a Woodland School Board meeting, Richard Schuettner read a letter criticizing Dist. 50 for spending tax money to oppose the Arbor Vista deannexation. He also stated that the attorneys had been instructed to prolong the hearings and demoralize the petitioners.

How many sessions have the petitioners used to demoralize Woodland and Warren? Haven't they used six lengthy sessions? Aren't the school districts entitled to equal time? They have hired attorneys and witnesses. Aren't the schools entitled to the same? Where were they when the schools were trying to pass referendums? Arbor Vista defeated two referendums in 1984. In February, 1985 only 82 of 294 registered voters cast a ballot. Forty-five percent still voted No.

Despite the inconveniences, Warren continues to provide quality education for its students. Instead of becoming a part of the solution, Arbor Vista wants to bail out.

Do the petitioners really want a quality education, or just a Libertyville address? Financial status does not determine human worth. It is the mixing of cultures and economic levels that makes America the land of equal opportunity. It also makes for a well-rounded education. Money does not automatically make good teachers, nor does it automatically make superior people.

Instead of dividing the community, we invite the petitioners to share their talents and their concerns for quality education with the Woodland and Warren school districts.

Too Many Pumpkins? Try These Recipes

At this time of year, anybody who has pumpkins usually has too many. There is a limit to how many pumpkin pies your family can eat, the number of jack-o-lanterns they can carve, and how many packages of pumpkin puree you can fit into the freezer.

But there are a few other things that can be done with pumpkin, according to Lake County Extension advisor, Irene Green.

"One of the first that comes to mind is pumpkin butter. Rather like apple butter—a little bit smoother, but with a taste just enough different to be special in its own right—pumpkin butter can be used as a spread on bread, dripping into hot muffins, or stirred into yogurt, pancake batter or doughnut batter."

Like fruit butters, pumpkin butter can be processed in a boiling water bath because of its high sugar content.

"Regular pumpkin must be processed in a pressure canner to avoid the risk of botulism. But with all that sugar, pumpkin butter will be stable on the shelf without pressure-canning."

Green offers this recipe that will make about seven cups of finished butter. While you should not change the sugar-to-pumpkin proportions, you may change the spices to fit the likes of your family.

Pumpkin Butter

1 (5-7 pound) pumpkin
Hot water
3½ cups sugar
1½ cups honey
1½ teaspoon ground cinnamon
¼ teaspoon ground allspice
½ teaspoon salt

Wash pumpkin. Cut into several pieces that will fit in a six-quart pot. Scrape out and discard seeds. In six-quart pot, cover pumpkin pieces with hot water. Bring to a boil over medium-high heat. Reduce heat to low. Cover; simmer until tender, about 20 minutes. Drain, discarding liquid. Use a large spoon to scrape pulp from peel; discard peel. Press pulp through a food mill or puree in a blender or food processor. Measure puree. A dry pumpkin variety will yield about five cups puree. A more moist pumpkin will yield six to eight cups puree. Return puree to pot. Bring to a boil over medium heat. Stirring frequently, boil until thickened, 10 to 20 minutes.

Wash seven half-pint jars in hot, soapy water; rinse. Keep hot until needed. Prepare lids as manufacturer instructs. When puree will mound slightly on a spoon, measure again. Use no more than four cups puree. Stir in remaining ingredients. Simmer uncovered until thick enough to spread. Test thickness of pumpkin butter by putting a tablespoonful on a saucer. Continue cooking until no ring of clean liquid forms around the butter on the saucer.

Ladle hot pumpkin butter into one hot jar at a time, leaving a quarter-inch headspace. Wipe rim of jar with a clean, damp cloth. Attach lid. Place in canner. Fill and close remaining jars. Process in a boiling water bath; for half-pints or pints, 10 minutes.

For a change of taste, try this pumpkin marmalade recipe.

Pumpkin Marmalade

3 pounds pumpkin, pared, cubed, and ground
3 pounds sugar
2 cups water
5 small oranges—remove center and seeds
3 small lemons—remove center and seeds (less, especially peels, may be used if desired)
Dash salt

Grind pumpkin, lemons and oranges, including peel, with fine blade of chopper. Mix water and sugar in large thick pot. Heat until sugar is dissolved. Add ground pumpkin and fruit. Cook slowly until fruit is crystallized and liquid reaches the gel stage, about 221 degrees Fahrenheit. This will take at least an hour. Stir frequently while cooking.

Skim foam. Pour into hot sterilized jars. Remove air bubbles and wipe tops of jars. Remove air bubbles and wipe tops of jars. Put on sterilized lids and bands.

Process 10 minutes of simmering temperature in a boiling-water bath.

The Black House?

How did the White House get its pure name? In 1814 a fire blackened the walls. The smoke-stained walls were painted white, giving rise to its name.

Trick Or Treat

Though some Lake County residents may suspect that a lot of monkey business goes on at county board meetings, it was more apparent than ever at the meeting last Friday, Halloween. Fred Popp (R-Lake Villa) smiles from his seat on the far right. Some Animals Look And Act Strangely

Pet-Wise

by CHARLENE WHITNEY

As I was reading, I found several most interesting facts about different animals. Some of these animals may seem strange in appearance only. You may think you're familiar with some of these animals, but find yourself surprised at what they can do. So here goes.

Did you know that a squid can fly for 100 feet before it splashes back into the water? It uses a jet of water to push itself in the water, and sometimes goes so fast that it may pop out of the water and glide through the air.

Did you know that there are some heavy animals that can run with amazing speed? The black rhino can run nearly 30 miles an hour and yet it may weigh more than 3,500 pounds. Elephants can charge at about 25 miles an hour and the heaviest on record weighed 24,000 pounds.

Now, the cheetah is truly the fastest mammal, as he runs faster than 70 miles per hour. He does tire quickly.

The largest meat-eating animal on land is the polar bear and the Kodiak bear. The largest bear on record stood 11-and-a-half feet tall and weighed 2,210 pounds.

The largest reptiles in the world are saltwater crocodiles. The largest one on record was 25-and-a-half feet long, weighing 4,000 pounds.

The Komodo dragon is not really a dragon, but the largest of lizards. He is about nine feet long and weighs a good 200 pounds. Don't worry though, they're only found on one island in the world.

I'm sure that most of you know the tallest animal. Most people like to joke about the giraffe and what a sore throat he would get. The tallest giraffe on record is 19 feet, three inches tall. That could be some sore throat alright!

Looking down to the ground you will see something moving, and it's larger than an insect. The giant of snakes is called the reticulated python, and it can be over 38 feet long.

The largest rodent is the capybara. It lives in South America. You are looking at 150 pounds of rodent. It would take some mouse trap to catch him!

Going into the ocean, the whale shark is the largest of fish, over 50 feet long, weighing 40,000 pounds.

Now looking into the sky, you will find the largest flying bird to be the kori bustard, weighing about 40 pounds. The albatross has the longest wings.

As to longevity, that depends on the type of animal. The giant tortoise may live at least 150 years when all goes well. Some living today were hatched before the Civil War.

In the fish kingdom, the lake sturgeon may live 80 years or more.

Birds don't necessarily have shorter lives than other living things. An Andean condor lived his whole life of 72 years in the zoo.

No matter how small the animal, even the insect gets a break. The queen termites may live and lay eggs for 50 years or more, and some scientists believe as long as 100 years.

Gorillas seem so much like humans, but no one is sure about how long they live in the wild. There was one in the zoo which lived 52 years.

The chimpanzee is only half as tall as a human, but would you believe they are three times stonger.

The world is full of amazing animals. We as humans may not be able to measure up in many areas, but we do have one big thing going for us—our brains. As a result we are able to find ways to live longer lives, and have many enjoyable things during our lives.

Animals are true wonders which we need in our lives.

For Undeclared Bulldogs How Perfect Is Perfect?

by STEVE PETERSON
Sports Editor

How perfect is perfect?

That's the question that confronted the Grant football team after it had demolished Grayslake 35-0 in the season finale for a perfect 9-0 record.

The undefeated conference champs gave coach Mike Rogowski plenty to be concerned about in the first half. They led 14-0, but penalties and a general lack of execution did not meet the Bulldogs high standards.

"The first half was a little shaky. It was probably my fault. Maybe I talked about the playoffs too much during the week. Grayslake gave a great effort. If you're 0-100, you're going to try," Rogowski said.

Grant came into the game looking to finish perfect for the first time in 11 years. The next night, 8-1 Lake Forest from the North Suburban Conference was chosen as the Bulldogs first Class 4A playoff opponent. Should Grant have won that home game, the winner of the Rockford East-Dundee-Crown preliminary round game looms for Saturday.

Rogowski knows he has something special going in the '86 team and wants it to continue.

"Someone in the administration came down the other day and said after Wednesday things will be getting back to normal. I don't want them to get back to normal. I don't want this season to end. I want to be spending Thanksgiving weekend at the campus of Illinois State University (the site for the semi-final and championship games)," the coach said.

It was Grayslake that started fast in this one. Quarterback Mike Langer called a trick pass play on the first play from scrimmage, but the long play went for naught because the receiver had stepped out of bounds.

A bad snap on Grayslake's first punt gave the Bulldogs the ball at the Grayslake 21. On the first play, Kevin Frystak scored the first of his touchdowns on a sharp move on a pitchout left play for a 7-0 Grant lead with 9:58 left.

It appeared the hosts were off to the races. But the offense bogged down and Frystak, who came into the game averaging over six yards a carry, had a touchdown called back because of a penalty.

A 44-yard touchdown drive produced Kevin's second touchdown in the second quarter. Runs by Brad Frystak, Kevin and quarterback Garry Glauser brought the ball to the visitors' 17. That's where Kevin scored TD number two and a Dave Rudkin extra point made it 14-0 at half-time.

A series of fumbles Grant had four on the night-prevented another first half score.

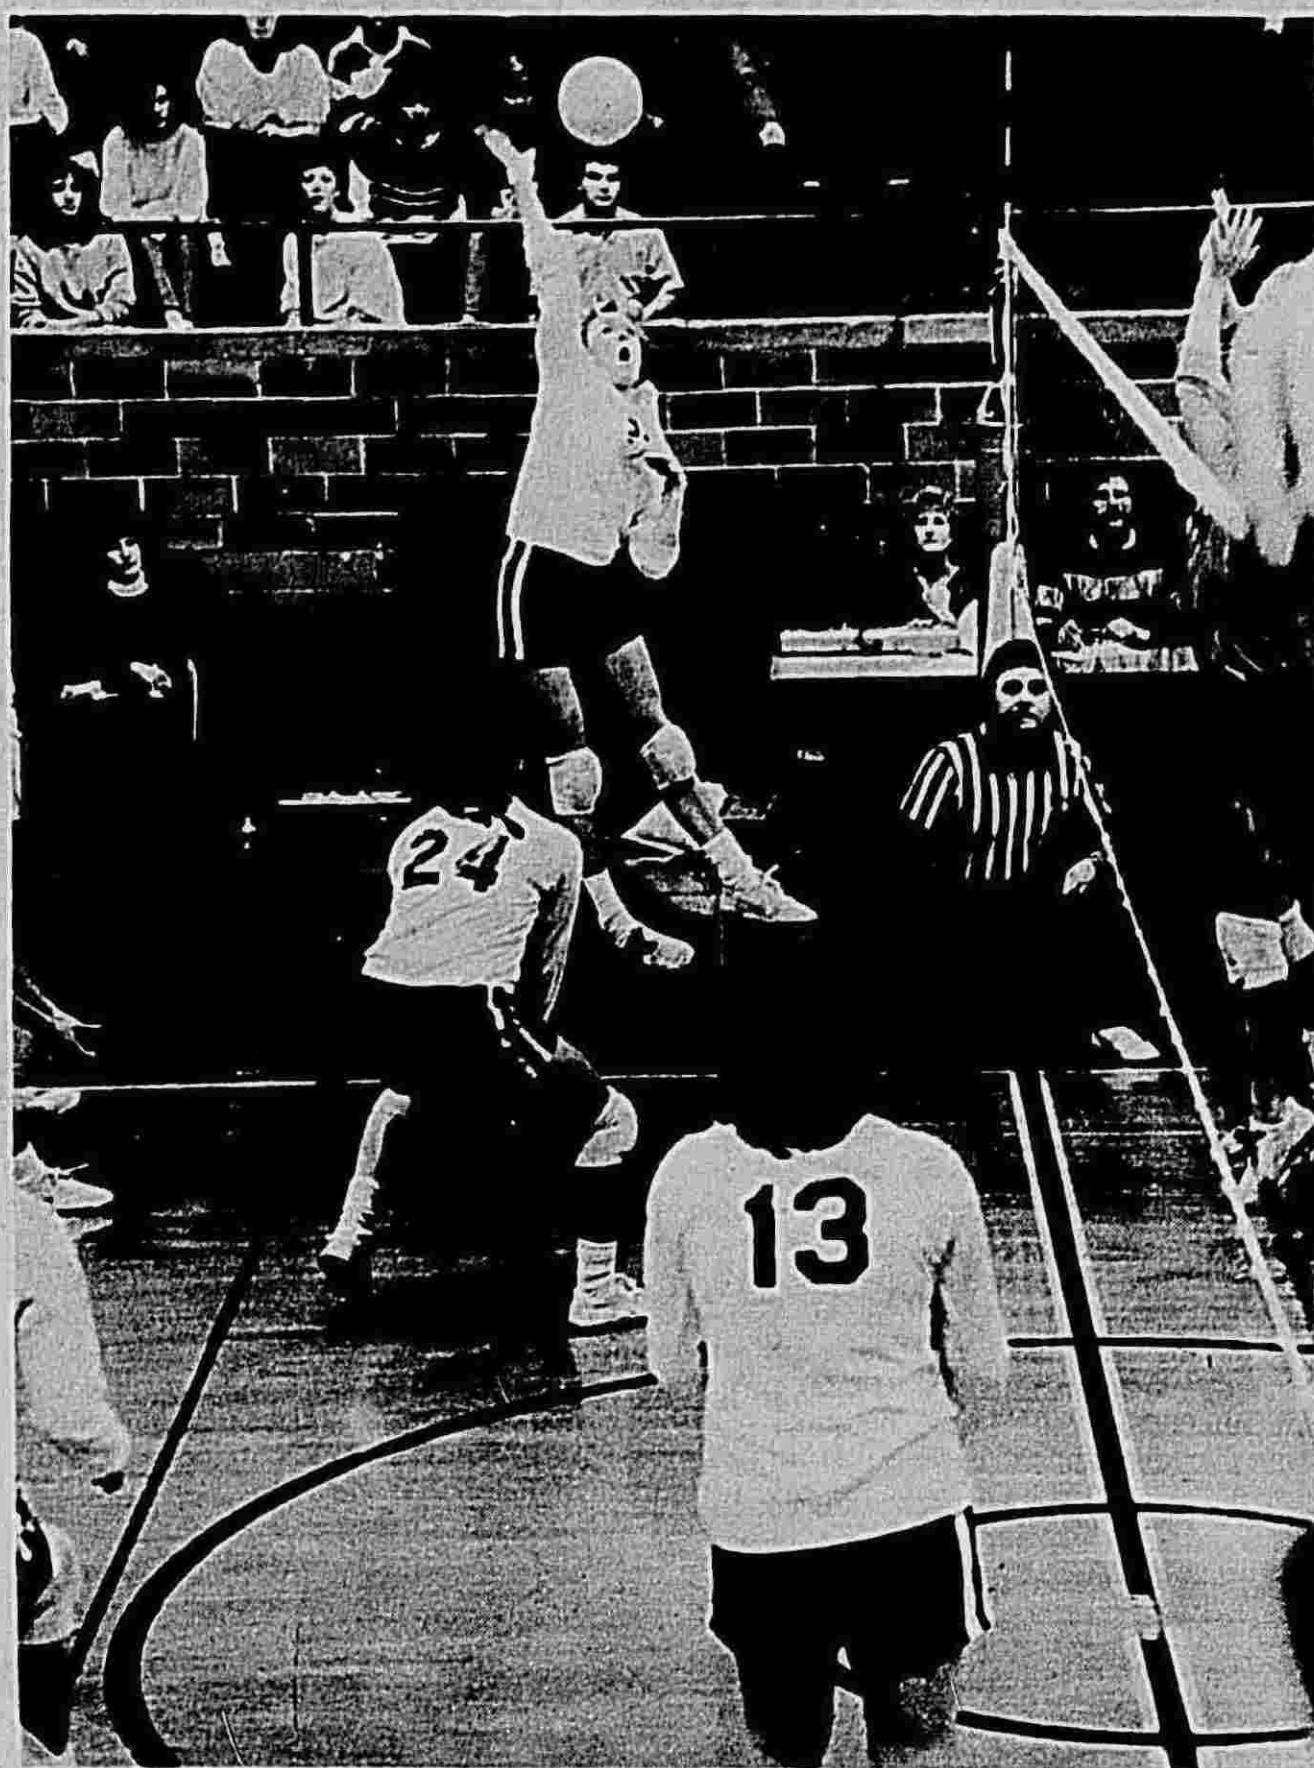

"It looks like we're the 1-7 team," Rogowski told a reporter before the second half kickoff.

Responding to a halftime discussion, Grant took just five plays to go 60 yards and Glauser running the final 35 for a 20-0 lead. The extra point try missed.

Kevin Frystak scored his third and final touchdown midway through the third quarter on a 22 yard run.

Rogowski let the second string offense, led by quarterback Tim McGeever, play the final three minutes of the game. McGeever led the Bulldogs on a 72-yard march, topped off by a 25 yard run by Glen Glashnagel.

"McGeever plays the role of the other team's quarterback during practices so he picks up all our plays. He'll be our starting quarterback next year," Rogowski said.

Dunn's Survivors Notch Second Winning Season

The Panthers put together one of their better efforts of the year last week in defeating Lake Zurich 25-16. The win gave the defending Northwest Suburban Conference champions a 5-4 overall record and a tie for third place with Marengo and Johnsburg.

"The kids played with a lot of intensity. There was a lot of pride in these kids, particularly the seniors. They remember last year. Their junior's beat our junior pretty bad, too," Dunn said.

Dunn's reference to "last year" was, on the last game of the season, the Bears nipped the Panthers 6-3, causing Round Lake to share the league title with Marian Central.

"We blocked and tackled well. We just beat them up," Dunn said.

Running back Chuck Banker closed his season by scoring twice on touchdowns of one and eight yards in the second quarter. Banker finished with 110 yards in 25 attempts.

"We controlled the game because we could run off tackle," Dunn said.

Quarterback Walter Tesch was five for 10 for 79 yards, 68 coming on a touchdown pass to Tom Carroll.

Lake Zurich struck first when Jim Hook finished a 10-play drive with a six yard run.

Banker's two scores then gave Round Lake a 13-7 halftime margin.

"Carroll did not have anyone within 50 yards of him," Dunn said of the 68-yard TD throw from Tesch in the third quarter.

That gave the hosts breathing room at 19-7. Joe Lauderer ran back a Lake Zurich pass 31 yards for a score later in the quarter.

In Johnsburg, the word is disappointment.

"We lost our first two games and our last two games. In between, we were 4-1. It's disappointing," Johnsburg coach Mike Roberts said.

The Skyhawks, after being 3-2 at one point, ended the season at 4-5 with an 8-7 loss to Marengo at home.

Johnsburg scored first, with Paul Polep catching a 15-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Frank Husak in the second quarter. The Brian Frazier extra point made it 7-0.

The key play to the game came in the third quarter.

"Charlie Giovanni, our long snapper, had been thrown out of the game in the first quarter. Frazier could not handle the snap from center and Marengo's Brian McCartney ran 55 yards with it," Roberts said.

That touchdown, plus a two-point conversion pass from Kevin Shelton to Mark Nelson gave Marengo the 8-7 margin.

"The defense played great. We pretty much controlled the line. The defense played great all year," Roberts said.

Despite the finish, Johnsburg can point to some good things in 1986. Like winning three straight after losing the first two, including a win over Round Lake.

"That win was the highlight because we respect their program so much," Roberts said.

Also, the Skyhawks packed the stands for Homecoming against Grant. Although they lost 28-6, Johnsburg became the first team to score against Grant's defense.

The losing mark means the school is still looking for that elusive third winning season.

"I think a lot of that is tradition. We don't have that here," Roberts said.

In another league game, Marian Central had an easy time of it in a 39-0 whipping of Wauconda.

Marian Central also qualified for the Class 2A playoffs for the fourth straight year. That gives the league two playoff teams.

The Marengo win gave the Indians a 5-4 overall record. Grant finished on top at 7-0, 9-0 overall. Marian was next at 6-1, 7-2 followed by Round Lake at 4-3, 5-4; Marengo at 3-4, 5-4 and Johnsburg at 3-4, 4-5. The second division consists of Lake Zurich at 2-5, 2-7; Grayslake at 1-6, 1-8 and Wauconda at 0-7, 1-8.

Warren Crushes Fenton, Returns To State Playoffs

by STEVE PETERSON
Sports Editor

There is an awful lot of people who believe this team deserves to be in the playoffs. One of them, Warren Doug High School football coach, Reggie Haines said:

Warren had just beaten Fenton, a second 27-0 trouncing in the WTHS Homecoming game. Then the winning season.

Would the ESSA agree with Haines and Blue Devils coaches that the 6-0 team deserves a playoff? Or would the group of selectors and some point that would only another team past Warren?

Continuity for Warren, the ESSA also said the Blue Devils deserved to be in the playoffs. And they were looking. Wednesday, Wednesday night, if they get beyond that battle, the winner of the Fenton Blue Devils-Duquesne game would win the Blue Devils on Saturday.

But for the start week in practice, Warren could report its return to post-season play under the year absence.

Warren made the announcement that it would play a season party under the most unusual circumstances. Now only the loss to North Chicago early drove them to 2-1 record, but Warren, already on a temporary facility at Lake Forest, last home came to a halt. The loss to the Scouts dropped Warren to 1-2, seemingly out of the post-season.

Starting at Glen-Renton and continuing with Auburn, Woodstock, Stevenson and Fenton, the Warren put together an enough offense to complement a solid defense. The net result: a five-game winning streak and post-season play.

"When we were 1-2, we'd decided as a team to let this season go to waste," running back Chris Thompson said.

The Homecoming crowd had to have thirty-degree temperatures in the season time. As far as Haines is concerned, perhaps Homecoming would be better early next year.

Homecoming is a necessity with that record.

Warren had a wish it did not have to have this final job. "We have not done well at Homecoming in the past," he said.

The Blue Devils did not start well in this one.

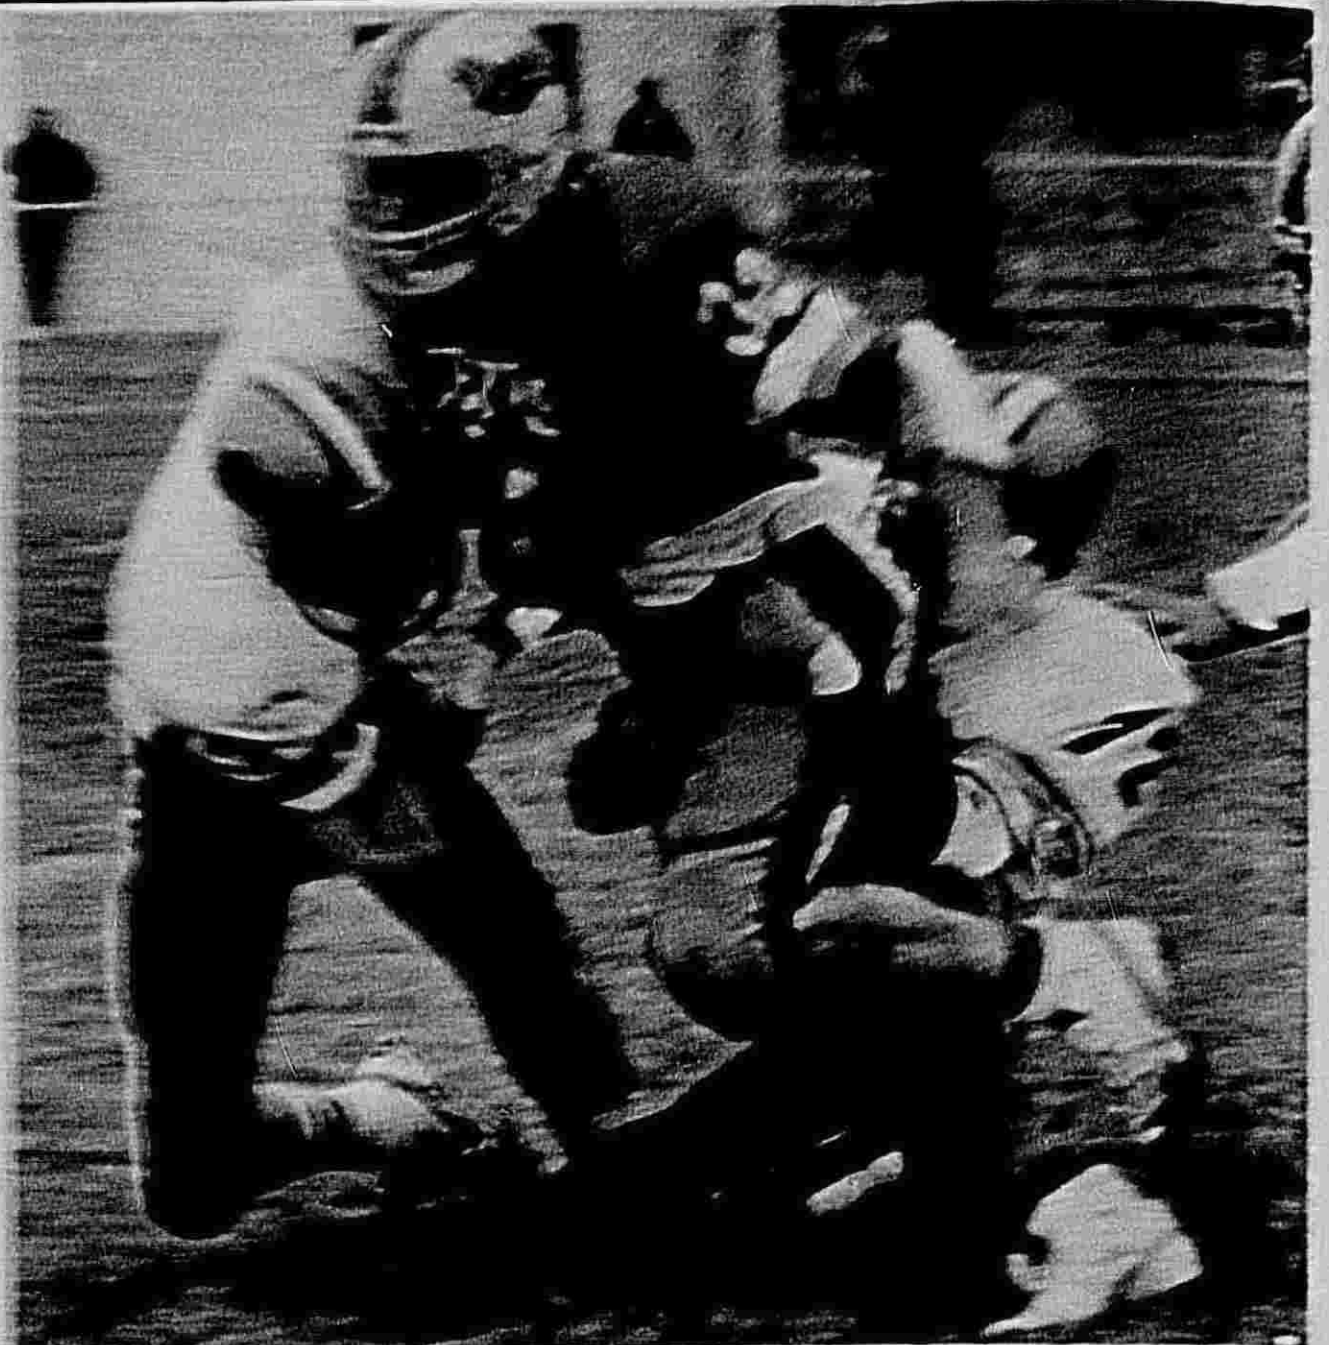

It took a half hour for the defense to drive Fenton back from deep in Warren territory and then stop at fourth-down try to preserve a 14-point edge for the hosts.

"We did not play well in the first half. We hurt ourselves offensively. You can't have those kinds of penalties in the playoffs," Haines said.

Warren's Brian Scott caught a 14-yard TD pass from quarterback Derek Seldon on the score. The 63-yard drive took almost five minutes of the first quarter.

Fenton went on a first down in a fourth and two situation that turned the game around at the start of the second half.

Warren stopped the run. Dave Davis carried the ball four of five plays. He had a 5-yard touchdown run for a 14-0 Warren lead. Mike Wagner set up the score with a 3-yard run.

Carmel Finishes A Winner In Record, All-League Team

Carmel received good news on and off the football field in the final week of the season.

Victory for the Corsairs with St. Joseph's 4-0, but that win gave Carmel its first winning season since 1972. Five Carmel players were later named to the All-East Suburban Conference team. Five were chosen in the All-League competition.

"The kids were fired up. The seniors wanted to go out on a high note," Carmel coach Mike Fitzgibbon said.

Carmel later a 14-0 shutout, but that win in a conference game. The Corsairs scored a shutout in 5-0 and in the middle of the 1980s.

"This was the money of our season. They were inspired, as we were," Fitzgibbon said.

and junior. Kids can't look at that and say it doesn't have anything to do with what we're doing on the field," Fitzgibbon said.

Corsairs making the all-league team picked by coaches were Derek Foster, a junior running back, tackle Ken Goodman, center Mike Hand and linebacker Joe Torman. Chosen from the defense were defensive back Mike Graham and Jeff Zappa, a defensive end.

Four of the five players chosen from Carmel in the all-league team were defensive. Joining quarterback Steve Bruns were offensive tackle Mike Block, defensive end John Hoffman, linebacker Dave Goodman and defensive back Jeff Brannen.

"The line play was the key to our year," Fitzgibbon said.

The line opened enough holes for Foster so that the speedster could run for 299 yards in 18 carries. Foster scored three touchdowns, the first on a 22-yard run in the first quarter. He also had a 5-yard TD run in the quarter for a 14-0 lead after one.

Bruns scored on an eight-yard run and Mike Moberg from six yards out for Carmel.

Art Bustamante had two field goals of 30 and 23 yards.

Carmel also scored on defense as Goodman picked off a St. Joseph pass and ran it in for a 5-yard touchdown.

Carmel lost its lead for a shutout when the visitors scored late in the fourth quarter.

Interception Return

WTHS Spikers Look To Future

Finishing second in the North Suburban Conference tournament marked the 1986 Warren Doug High School volleyball season.

Coach Chris Woodard said his team finished 14-1 and had a fourth place in the conference. In the league final, the Blue Devils surprised opponents by making it to the championship game for the first time.

"Finishing second in the tournament was our biggest," Woodard said.

The Blue Devils are ranked 10th in the state since a 1985 trip to Kansas City with another year under their belts.

"All in the year we've got a lot of playing time," Woodard said.

Among those returning was last season's MVP, Spencer Woodard. Other seniors: Jeff Hunter, Terry Hines, Tim Hinton and Dennis Hinton.

Woodard said the junior class will be a big factor in the future.

Woodard said the team will use a more computerized system. The junior class will use the same system.

"We had one year, an outstanding player who could put the ball in the net," Woodard said.

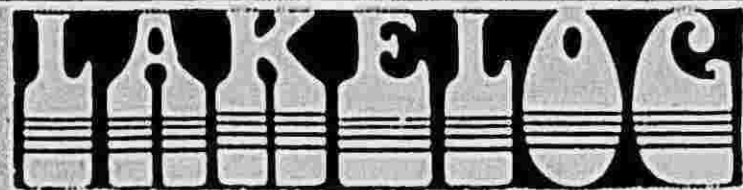

Woodard said the team is looking for a new coach. "We had a lot of people with a lot of experience," Woodard said.

In serving, Dave Beatty and Hinton were the Blue Devils' most consistent. The coach said, "I'm looking for a new coach, someone who can lead the team."

Scenic is the word for Joan Collins' 'Monte Carlo'

By Wendy Wallace

The scenic locations in the south of France and the powerful presence of Joan Collins are the strongest selling points of the four-hour miniseries Monte Carlo (CBS, Nov. 9 and 10).

Joan Collins

In her second miniseries for CBS, Collins appears as Katrina Petrovna, a glamorous Russian-born chanteuse. Her husband is murdered by the Nazis on the eve of World War II, so the heartbroken Katrina becomes a spy for the Allies and uses her usual comings and goings as a cover for her daring espionage activities. Katrina becomes more and more deeply involved in her espionage work — and finds herself gambling with death in a desperate attempt to stay slightly ahead of the Gestapo. George Hamilton plays down-on-his-luck American writer Harry Price, who poses the ultimate threat to Katrina — that of love.

Barbara Hale, William Katt and Raymond Burr

star in their third TV-movie go-round in Perry Mason: The Case of the Shooting Star (NBC, Nov. 9). Burr returns as the celebrated attorney Perry Mason and investigates the on-air murder of a TV talk-show host (Alan Thicke).

Alfre Woodard plays Maude DeVictor, a dedicated Veterans Administration counselor, and John Ritter plays Frank Coleman, a cancer victim, in Unnatural Causes (NBC, Nov. 10). This fact-based drama concerns DeVictor's battle to link Agent Orange with the illnesses suffered by vets, a battle in which she runs up against the power structure of the Veterans Administration. Coleman becomes her ally in the battle to raise awareness of Agent Orange's possible dangers.

Two of Woodard's "St. Elsewhere" co-stars, Eric Laneuville and Denzel Washington, combine their talents as director and star in The George McKenna Story (CBS, Nov. 11). Washington plays McKenna, a principal who turned a gang-ridden Los Angeles high school into a respected academic institution by fostering community involvement and following his convictions.

Splash (ABC, Nov. 9) will be to your liking if you're looking for some laughs. Tom Hanks stars as a young businessman who falls in love with a mermaid (played by Daryl Hannah).

CableView Ron Howard's 'Cocoon' is hitting cable television

By Amanda Bruce

What does every mortal long for? Immortality. But what happens when immortality is suddenly within reach? Is it something desirable, after all? Will it bring happiness or just prolonged life?

Ron Howard

Director Ron Howard brings up these questions in "Cocoon," which airs Nov. 9 and 13 on The Movie Channel, Nov. 13 and 15 on Cinemax, Nov. 11 and 14 on Showtime, and Nov. 11 and 19 on HBO.

Howard uses a fanciful story that is charged with laughter, wisdom and charming, engaging characters. The cast is filled with major names from film and theater: Hume Cronyn, Don Ameche, Wilford Brimley, Maureen Stapleton, Jessica Tandy and Gwen Verdon, as well as Brian Dennehy, Steve Guttenberg, Tahnee Welch, Jack Gilford and Barret Oliver.

This time Howard, who scored big with the comedy "Splash," takes us to a retirement home whose inhabitants find a "fountain of youth" in the swimming pool of a vacated house. One problem: The magic within the pool is controlled by a group of alien visitors who are not at all pleased with the invasion of the mortals. Will they share their secrets of eternal life? And is it worth it, even if they are willing?

There's political drama aplenty on Lifetime.

"Washington: Behind Closed Doors" is a former network miniseries making its cable debut and airing in five parts Nov. 10-14. Jason Robards, Robert Vaughn, Cliff Robertson and Andy Griffith star in the fictional story of a toppled president.

It's based — loosely — on the book "The Company," written by John Ehrlichman, a former high-level assistant to President Richard M. Nixon. It makes great television, and the story is tense and exciting.

For a more romantic look at politics, watch "Jacqueline Bouvier Kennedy," a network TV movie on Lifetime, Nov. 19 and 20. Jaclyn Smith stars as the first lady. The story begins with her privileged childhood in Virginia and concludes with the tragedy in Dallas.

It's a smooth, idealized portrait that doesn't touch on any of the controversy surrounding the Kennedys. But it does make for easy, fun viewing.

An Idea That Takes In The Whole Picture

Starting Your Own Business...
...The Great American Dream!

A look at the people who've made that dream a reality.

★★★★★★★★★★★★★★★★

by SUSAN MONTGOMERY

Going from the "cradle to the racetrack" is how Antioch businessman Don Marsky describes his latest endeavor.

Just six months ago, Marsky, who owns the Ben Franklin store in downtown Antioch, plunged into marketing something his store had never offered before—a frame shop.

The idea was not only an immediate success, but has expanded to include over 500 frame varieties that line the walls of the store's newest department. From dark wood to sleek metal designs, the frames range in cost from as low as 99 cents and upward.

"We felt there was a need for this type of service in our area," Marsky says. "Normally, it takes a year for something like this to catch on."

But with a drawing of customers from the Chain of Lakes and southern Wisconsin areas, Marsky's service filled the gap in a previously wide open market.

With assistance from the corporate Ben Franklin office, which introduced the frame shop in its other stores nationwide a few years ago, Marsky and his wife, Jane, began their venture.

During a special week-long framing course in Georgia, Jane fine-tuned her skills in glass and mat cutting, and selecting mat colors for the appropriate frame.

"Looking at a picture, knowing what color mat or type of frame to choose isn't that easy," says Jane.

"With all the choices they have, it's easy for customers to become confused."

"A lot of people who don't really know what they would let us select something for them. There are others who come in with an idea of what they'd like," adds Beth Johnson, who also works in the frame department.

By a stroke of good fortune, the Marskys had a chance meeting with Johnson, a frame specialist at another Ben Franklin store in Maryland whose husband had been transferred to the Midwest.

With her experience, Johnson helped the Marskys organize their frame shop and now works directly with customers.

Johnson says, "We frame a lot of needlework, mirrors, posters, academic certificates mounted next to a picture, shadow boxes, wedding invitations with dried flower arrangements. You can do so much with framing."

There's even a collage of a presidential inauguration invitation, program and ticket for the inaugural ball mounted onto a mat.

"The other thing customers may want to consider is where they're going to hang the picture to blend it with the surroundings. If something is being framed for a man, you may go with a wood frame for more masculine tones," she says.

"We even have people coming in now who are thinking about Christmas gift ideas," Jane adds.

Although orders usually take between 10 days to two weeks, holiday orders can take up to three weeks so ample time is advised.

In Dad's Scaffold

Mount Rushmore, the Presidential memorial, was commissioned by Congress in 1925. Sculptor Gutzon Borglum died in 1941 before completing the vast monument. His son, Lincoln, completed the piece.

Film Program Gives Lesson In Banking

Traditionally, the best place to learn about banking was at the bank. Now, through a new filmstrip program, banking representatives can assist the classroom teacher in presenting the technical aspects of banking.

The program, "Banking Is..." was presented by the First State Bank of Round Lake as a public service to Round Lake Senior High School. Harold J. Nye, bank president, presented the multimedia filmstrip to Ila Bauer at a presentation meeting Oct. 28.

"Writing a check, applying for a loan, computing interest and using a bank's services are things most adults take for granted; we have done them all our lives. But these activities must be learned, and for many of today's students they can be foreign as any new endeavor," Nye said.

"Many adults learned banking by trial and error; but in today's world of advancing technology, this is no longer a satisfactory solution. For instance, today checkwriting is as much a part of life as driving is. Ninety percent of all financial transactions are made by check and the American public will write more than 37 billion checks this year. Yet, in spite of this, statistics show that less than 85 percent of the graduating seniors know how to write a check properly. So, it is easy to see that checkwriting is an activity that students should understand if they are to take their place in the financial community.

"We hope our sponsorship of this program will help give students a more thorough and systematic understanding of these banking activities, the new services available, and to help them in the management of their personal financial affairs.

"We strongly believe that the more financially secure students become through knowledge and practice of good banking, the better citizens they become; and the better our young citizens, the better our tomorrow."

As part of the program, an officer of the bank is available for a follow-up classroom question-and-answer session.

Antioch Business Is A Center Of Activity

by SUSAN MONTGOMERY

Antioch Chamber of Commerce President Larry Hanson wants to get the word out about all that the village's retail community has to offer.

"This is where it's happening. There's so much (local merchants) can do," he says.

Getting people involved, pulling together an active board, is an essential ingredient in building a dynamic retail community. "The power of 10 people can accomplish a lot more than one," he says.

In a village that has long enjoyed the reputation as a hub of commercial activity for the entire Chain of Lakes region, Hanson, 27, marks the arrival of a new generation of retailers ready to carry on that tradition.

"Tradition" has long been a byword in this community where businesses are often run by second, third and even fourth generations of one family. Yet, combined with Antioch's heritage is an inextricable commitment to continued progress and growth - a foundation set by village fathers.

The 19th century charm of historic buildings along Main St. are located just a few doors away from sleek, modern buildings like the Antioch State Bank. Industries like Pickard, Quaker and others, reaffirm the village's commitment to growth.

Antioch village officials have also passed a Tax Increment Financing (TIF) district to encourage local businesses.

The historic Country House restaurant on Rte. 173 abuts other sites which are also part of a developing business corridor, says Village Clerk Marilyn Sterbenz.

"This next year, we'll see a motel going in on Rte. 173. There are some vacant lots behind Hardees where I think we'll see more growth.

"Antioch has always had a policy of controlled growth," says Village Clerk Marilyn Sterbenz.

Yet preservation of the village's historic appeal remain just as important. "The look of Main St. today has the same character it did long ago," Sterbenz adds, noting restoration work done by a some local merchants on storefronts.

Of the village's heritage as a strong commercial community, Sterbenz says, "Antioch is really the hub of the Chain of Lakes region - it always has been, always will be.

One drawing factor, she says is that "you can walk anywhere in the downtown area. Even though there were no zoning regulations until 1966, the village just sort of planned itself neatly," she adds.

One longtime resident instrumental in encouraging local businesses was Bill Brook, former president and chairman of the Antioch State Bank.

Remembering the depression days when lending was given "on a handshake instead of filling out forms," Brook says "It was much more relaxed then. Things were done differently. If you lent a farmer $200, you never had to sent a due notice."

Brook, now 71, said his original career intent was not banking at all, but game management. But with the onset of the depression era during the 1930s, he entered his father's business at the Brook State Bank, then located at the corner of Lake and Main streets.

Starting out as a teller, he worked his way up to the position as president and later chairman during his 53-year career.

During the difficult depression years, as countless banks struggled and often folded, Brook remembers helping his father with a plan to get the bank back on track. "Under a moratorium established by President Herbert Hoover, a bank could stay open by getting its depositors to leave 30 percent with the bank which would be paid back over a 10-year period," Brook recalls.

"My father just hated the idea of having to ask depositors to do this. He tried to talk me out of it, but it worked."

Today, the Antioch State Bank's assets have reached $121 million.

"I feel a community is about as good as its financial institution. I guess I lean too much toward helping people. I liked watching someone become successful, whether it was a businessman, farmer or another individual. It took cooperation between the banker and borrower," Brook says.

Ted Axton, president of the First National Bank of Antioch, shares that philosophy. "In our view, the only way we can grow is if the businesses grow. Our goals is to be as much help to those people as possible."

Now celebrating its 60th year, Axton also notes that the role of Antioch's business sector during the early part of this century. "The community did act as the head of the Chain of Lakes," he says.

Founded by the C.K. Anderson family in 1926, the bank was located at the southwest corner of Lake and Main streets before moving across the street in 1966 to the former site of the Antioch State Bank. In 1972, the First National Bank of Antioch moved to its present facility on Lake St. The bank has $50 million in assets.

Another longtime resident, Betty Lou Williams, granddaughter of Daniel Williams of Williams Department Store, recalls, "I can remember when you knew everybody in town. It was a nice hometown. Business really boomed in the summer.

"We had a good train service which brought so many people in on the weekends. It was really a resort community in the summer. They used to say that in the winter, the sidewalks would close up," she says.

Three generations of the Williams family participated in operating the department store before the True Value Hardware Store took over.

Just because you live in a wealthy neighborhood, it doesn't mean you are immune from health problems caused by toxic waste. A study by the Council on Economic Priorities found that middle-income neighborhoods, have the highest levels of toxic waste and related cancer deaths. One of the worst places to live is Short Hills, New Jersey, with an average household income of $91,000. The best place is probably Beverly Hills, California, which has virtually no toxic waste.

Spikers Capture Regional Crown

by STEVE PETERSON
Sports Editor

There's one thing to be said about Antioch's volleyball team.

On most nights, even coach Carla Thompson is not sure which personality her Sequoits will bring to the court.

"When we're very up, we're up. When we're down, we're down," Thompson said.

The Sequoits were "up" at the right times in last week's Round Lake regional. They advanced to the Waukegan East sectional by winning two tense three-game matches against Round Lake and then Grayslake for the title.

Antioch, 14-15 after regional play, won the title against Grayslake 4-15, 15-10, 15-10.

Explosive serving of senior Julie Sexton led Antioch from the brink of elimination to victory.

"She's our sparkplug," Thompson said of Sexton.

Thompson explained Sexton is strong in serving because of her tennis background.

"Julie was a tennis player and the ball comes back at the side instead of a floater or top spin. She serves just like she does in tennis," Thompson said.

Thompson knows her team will have to play better if it is to be respectable in sectionals.

"We've got to play well. I'm sure Waukegan East will have a much better offense and be a little stronger,"

Thompson said.

Against the Rams, first round winners over Grant, Sexton scored 11 points serving on nine aces. She also contributed 10 spikes and four kills.

Other key contributors for the Sequoits were Sherry Waldroup with seven points and four kills and Debbie Sigler with seven serving points.

In game one, Antioch started well, leading 4-2 early.

But Grayslake, using the powerful spiking of Lisa Richardson and strong 16-for-20 serving, reeled off 13 straight points for a 15-4 win.

Laura Poole ended the game on an ace.

The second game looked all Grayslake. The Rams jumped off to a 9-2 lead. Then Antioch settled down and Grayslake could not score a point on four straight sideouts.

That allowed Sexton to take over.

She served for five points to bring Antioch back into the game at 9-7. Antioch later took an 11-10 lead.

Sexton then finished off the game, serving the last four points.

Antioch, after a between-games celebration, dominated game three. The Sequoits led 13-2 before Grayslake scored a point.

The Rams' Poole tried to start her team on a valiant comeback and Grayslake did close the gap to 14-10.

But Antioch's lead proved to be too much to overcome.

Making A Set

Niles N. Edges Antioch 7-6

As far as Antioch football coach Steve Wapon is concerned, the 3-6 record is not the most important thing about this year's Sequoits.

"The thing I will remember the most about this year's team is refusal to quit. We had more injury problems than we've had in past years, the negotiations hung a cloud over our kids and we had some eligibility problems. But these kids stuck it out through all the adversity," Wapon said.

Antioch gave playoff-bound Niles North all it could handle in a season-ending 7-6 loss last week.

The Sequoits pulled to within one point at 7-6 with 7:53 left when quarterback Chris Polark tossed a 14-yard TD strike to Brian Pankauskas. The two-point conversion bid failed.

The hosts had a field goal try late in the game but it missed.

Defensively, the Sequoits turned in a gem. After allowing Niles North to score on a 22-play drive to start the game, the hosts shut the Vikings' offense down.

Scott Gouch had two interceptions and Scott Koeller had one.

"We did not have quite enough," Wapon said.

The Niles North game was one of handful that the Sequoits came close in.

Offensively, David Wick chalked up 68 yards in 22 carries. During the touch-down drive, Polark completed passes to Brian Hannigan and Pankauskas.

In other NSC action, North Chicago succumbed to a late field goal by Lake Forest with just 18 left in the game, 3-0.

North Chicago ends its season at 3-6.

The win gave the Scouts an 8-1 record, tied with Niles North for first place. Niles North beat Lake Forest for the title.

In playoff games, four teams qualified for post-season play.

Lake Forest was assigned to Class 4a against Grant. Niles North, Stevenson and Warren also made the post-season play.

Lancer Kickers Vie For Nationals

by JOHN PHELPS

The College of Lake County mens soccer and womens volleyball teams continued their journeys successfully in post-season play last weekend.

On Oct. 31, the Lancer booters were in action in a semi-final round game of the Region IV tourney against visiting Wright College. The Lancers won 3-1 and headed into a Region IV showdown versus host Triton Saturday at noon with a national tournament bid at stake.

Against Wright, the Lancers drew first blood when Roger Jansen knocked one through the parallels unassisted late in the first half. The duration of the game would prove to be a defensive posture for both teams.

Wright evened the contest midway through the second half. Lake County had several shots on goal in the game, but regulation ended 1-1.

With the game two hours long, darkness began to play a factor. CLC quickly realized this as the Lancers erupted for two goals, one in each segment of the 10-minute overtime period.

The Lancers jumped out to a 2-1 lead when Chris Larson scored the eventual game winner, assisted from Derek Bromstead. Larson also played another big role as he scored the second goal in the OT in the late going, assisted by Jansen. When the final whistle sounded and darkness settled in, CLC's soccer team was victorious 3-1.

"Wright played an outstanding game. I'm just so excited to see us in the finals. It's been really nice to watch the team progress through the season, because they've worked hard and they deserve it," coach Dave Beck said.

The lady spikers were also in action Oct. 31, competing in the sectional volleyball tournament at Harper College.

CLC received a bye in the first round, eagerly awaiting a finals clash with Elgin, which defeated McHenry in the semi-finals.

The Lancers wasted little time in the championship, disposing of the Spartans 15-12, 15-10 and 16-14.

"We didn't play particularly well, but we seemed in control the entire match," coach Laura Phillip said.

Individually for Lake County, in the first game Gina Martinez led the Lancers with six points in serving and had two kills and two attacks not returned. In the second game, Kelly Hanson led the way with five serving points while JoAnne Hangebrauck had two kills.

In the final game, Martinez, Hanson and Hangebrauck each had four points serving. Also playing well in game three was Kelly Halkyard with one kill and two attacks not returned and Lynn Arvidson with two kills.

The 16-8 Lancers move into the 12-team regional tourney at DuPage, starting Friday.

CLC will be involved in a four-team pool Friday, with the top two teams moving into Saturday's double-elimination tournament.

"I'm really happy with our position going into the tournament. I feel we have an excellent chance to finish in the top six in the tournament," Phillip said.

Study System To Remove Radium From Drinking Water

Gov. James R. Thompson announced a study to evaluate a new system to remove naturally occurring radium from community drinking water supplies in Illinois.

"This study will be most useful, since a number of Illinois communities have radium levels in their drinking water supplies that exceed federal guidelines," Thompson said. "New technologies to address this problem can protect the public health while permitting economic growth in these communities."

The study will be conducted under a contract with the Illinois Dept. of Nuclear Safety (DNS) by Battelle Memorial Institute, a scientific research and engineering firm headquartered in Columbus, Ohio. The study will allow the state to properly evaluate a system developed by an Illinois firm, Iso-Clear, Inc. based in Yorkville, for removing radium from drinking water.

Gov. Thompson commended State Rep. Dennis Hastert of Yorkville on his efforts on this issue. "Dennis Hastert brought Iso-Clear to our attention more than six months ago," Thompson said. "He has followed the development of their process and our testing of the process. He has been a strong advocate for moving the project as quickly as it was technically prudent and possible to do."

Iso-Clear has proposed a filtering system using a compound called CYC, which can remove radium from drinking water supplies. Radium levels in excess of federal limits have been discovered in approximately 100 Illinois communities.

Many of the communities with excess levels of radium in the water, including Yorkville, are located in the northern part of the state and utilize deep wells for drinking water. Naturally occurring radium in underground rocks can easily dissolve in water from deep wells.

Thompson said development of less costly methods of removing radium from drinking water will help enable local governments to adequately protect the public health and safety.

At the same time, he said, removal or reduction of radium levels will foster economic development in affected communities. Communities with excessive radium levels in the drinking water supply are limited in expanding water and sewer systems.

If the Iso-Clear method is found to be potentially viable, a large-scale demonstration project would be the next step, possibly using a mobile treatment facility for Yorkville's water supply.

The Battelle study will provide the Dept. of Nuclear Safety with a procedure to evaluate the effectiveness of the system developed by Iso-Clear, as well as other systems which may be proposed in the future, DNS Director Terry Lash said.

Battelle will identify any additional laboratory tests that may be needed to determine the effectiveness of the Iso-Clear and will determine if any substances or chemical changes with potential adverse impacts are released into water by CYC.

In addition, the study will help DNS evaluate future proposals for removing radium from drinking water. Among the factors to be considered in the evaluation are cost, ease of implementation, and potential health impact. Existing methods of removing radium from drinking water can be cost prohibitive for some communities.

Murph Faces South, Toasts Favorite Scribe

Steinke On Politics

by JOHN STEINKE

My favorite political legend has corresponded with me: William J. "Bingo Bill" Murphy. "Murph" was our state legislator for 18 years. Here are excerpts of his "Dear John" letter:

"I must confess that I enjoyed the article in the Oct. 16 publication. Everyone, of course, likes to be remembered—but I believe old, out-dated politicians like it best of all! You appear to have an interesting, though apparently one-sided election in Lake County and Illinois. You have livened it up with your sharp pen, though I doubt that my old buddy Mickey (Babcox) prays for you at night.

"John, I have kind of gone 'on the wagon' in my later years, and now only drink Rob Roys (scotch Manhattans.) So, with glass in hand, I face a little south-southeast and drink to you a toast:

I've drunk to your health so many times,
I've drunk to myself alone;
I've drunk to your health so many times,
I've darn near lost my own.

Actually, John, I'm in good health and just celebrated my 71st birthday on Oct. 12. Had all my boys home—Virginia made my birthday 'cake'—a butterscotch pie—and we really had a wonderful time. If Mickey picks on you too much, give me a call, and I will have a little 'walk with Jesus' talk with my old buddy."

Comment: "Murph," when God made you, he threw away the mold. Why did you sign your letter "Elder Statesman?" Don't you remember Harry S. Truman's famous saying? "A statesman is a dead politician." "Murph," you're four years younger than the President of the United States, and 100 times smarter than State Rep. Robert Churchill of Lake Villa Manor.

Bill Murphy's legion of friends should be aware that he's operating a beautiful resort in the Wisconsin Dells area. The address is: Tamarack, 10035 Xanadau Rd., Wisconsin Dells, Wis. 53965.

Safety Preservation

Tony Sedar (left), Lake County Forest Preserve Dist. Commissioner, presents a plaque to Michael Fenelon (center), supervisor of planning and design for earning the most outstanding safety record in the district's safety incentive contest. Sedar said that Fenelon had a perfect safety record - no accidents and 100 percent participation in the safety program. District president Donald Strenger joins Sedar in praising the efforts of Fenelon and his department.

Award Bikers' Trophies

On Oct. 24 the Cooperative Extension Service Bike-A-Thon sponsored by the Farm Bureau presented trophies and bikes to the three bikers bringing in the most sponsor money in a ceremony at the Extension Auditorium.

First place award trophy and bike was received by Virginia Krueger of Mundelein; the second place trophy and bike went to Marja-Leena Aaltonen of 4-H Club Gurnee; while the third place trophy and bike was presented to Shirley Gerstung of Spring Grove.

Two of the award bicycles were provided by the Lake County Homemakers Extension Assn. Maggie Marabella, president of the association, made the presentation.

A third bike was provided by Rockenbach Chevrolet of Grayslake. Greg Rockenbach made the presentation.

Those receiving Super High-Tech AM/FM Headsets were: Barbara Green, Libertyville, first place; Charles Binford, Grayslake, second place; James Dinschel, Highland Park, third place; and Sandi McKillip, Lake Forest, fourth place.

The trophy for the oldest rider was received by Frederick Haag, 60, of Long Grove for completing 53 miles, while the trophy for the youngest rider went to Andrea Gonzalez, 10, of Waukegan.

Catherine Gourley of Zion received the trophy for oldest rider, 66, on the exercycle for 23 miles. Youngest rider in the exercycle division was Danielle Dietrich of Lake Villa, 12, who received a trophy for completing 50 miles.

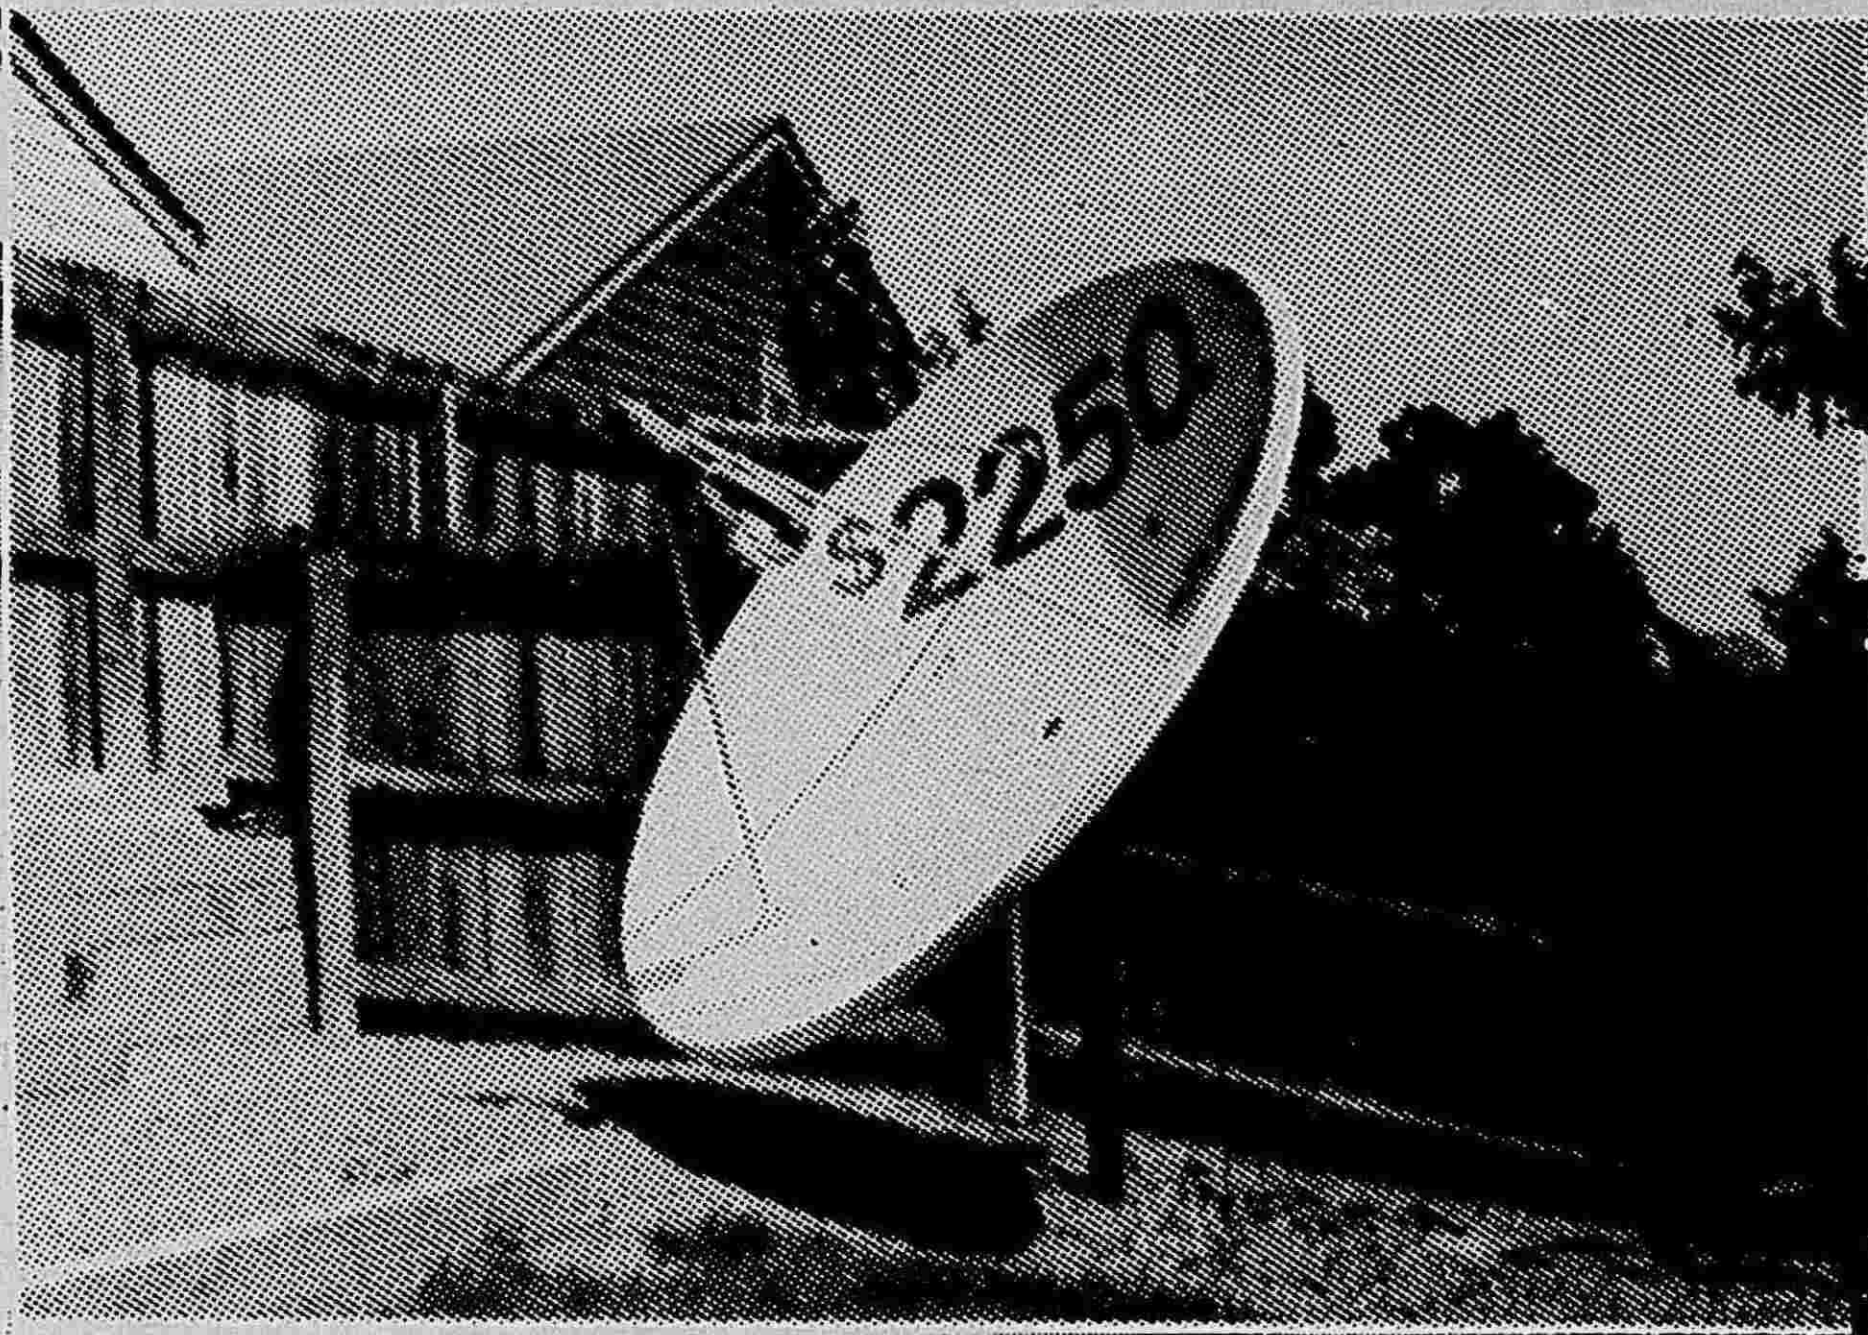

Big Bang

When the mighty volcano, Krakatoa, erupted in the Dutch East Indies in 1883, the sound was heard in Bangkok, 3,000 miles away.

In our Bridal Section last week, we inadvertently referred to Milady's Bridal Shop in Bannockburn as Mylady's. We apologize for the error.

BUYING A HOME SATELLITE DISH IS COSTLIER THAN YOU THINK

Before you spend your hard earned money on a satellite receive dish you should learn the facts.

This year popular premium services like HBO and Cinemax will begin scrambling their signals with highly sophisticated electronic encryption devices.

And this new technique won't be limited to just premium services.

Many basic cable channels like ESPN, MTV and CNN have announced their intentions to scramble signals.

What does this mean for satellite dish owners?

In addition to paying several thousand dollars for the purchase and installation of a receive dish, it will be necessary to spend hundreds of dollars on descrambling equipment plus pay monthly service fees for each channel received.

Make your decision based on the facts.

Elections

Lake County Democrats. Democratic incumbent Alan J. Dixon won 55 percent of the Lake County vote in his successful bid for reelection to the U. S. Senate. Democratic incumbent Atty. Gen. Neil Hartigan won 47 percent of the Lake County vote in his successful bid for reelection.

Adeline Geo-Karis, Republican candidate for comptroller, swept through Lake County with 62 percent of the vote. It was not enough for the hometown favorite, though, as she was defeated statewide by incumbent Democrat Roland Burris.

Sander Stagman, Democratic challenger for the Lake County Sheriff's office, polled only 36.4 percent of the vote to incumbent Republican Robert J. "Mickey" Babcox 63.6 percent. Still, he felt that this election breathed new life into the Lake County Democratic Party.

"Name recognition was the key factor," he said, "the people who had the best name recognition won, but it showed that Lake County voters are willing to support Democrats if they know them well enough and feel they are doing a good job."

Republican Party chairman Bob Neal said that the election showed that Lake County voters are "as smart as we thought they were."

"I think that (Lakeland Newspaper Publisher) Bill Schroeder hit the nail on the head when he said that voters are satisfied," Neal said.

He added that he thought Litwiler would have won the county clerk's office if it were not for the last minute release by Hess noting that Litwiler did not have a high school diploma.

With 387 of a total 395 Lake County precincts reporting, the results for each office are as follows:

U.S. SENATE: Incumbent Democrat Alan J. Dixon took 55 percent of Lake County votes to beat Republican challenger Judy Koehler. Statewide victor - Dixon.

GOVERNOR: Incumbent Republican James Thompson and Lt. Gov. George Ryan took 65 percent of the Lake County vote to beat Democratic (New Solidarity) challenger Adlai Stevenson and Michael Howlett. Statewide victors - Thompson and Ryan.

ATTORNEY GENERAL: Republican challenger Bernard Carey took 52 percent of the Lake County vote while incumbent Democrat Neil Hartigan took 47 percent. Statewide victor - Hartigan.

SECRETARY OF STATE: Incumbent Republican James Edgar took 82 percent of the Lake County vote and crushed challengers Jane Spigel and Janice Hart statewide as well.

COMPTROLLER: Adeline Geo-Karis, popular Lake County Republican State Senator, took 62 percent of the Lake County vote but lost statewide to incumbent Democrat Roland Burris.

TREASURER: Republican Mike Houston took 55 percent of the Lake County vote while beating Democrat Jerry Cosentino.

U.S. CONGRESS: Incumbent Republican John Porter easily defeated Democratic challenger Bob Cleland in the 10th Dist. while 12th Dist. incumbent Republican Phil Crane blasted Democratic challenger John Leonardi.

STATE REPRESENTATIVE: Incumbent Democrat Grace Mary Stern beat Republican Robert Jans in the 58th with 76 percent of the vote. Incumbent Democrat John Matijevich easily defeated Republican John Bobel with 73 percent in the 61st.

CIRCUIT COURT JUDGE: Republican John Goshgarian beat Democrat Peter Staben with 66 percent.

LAKE COUNTY CLERK: Linda Hess with 51.5 percent beat republican Donna-Mae Litwiler.

LAKE COUNTY SHERIFF: Incumbent Republican Mickey Babcox easily defeated Democrat Sander Stagman with 64 percent of the vote.

LAKE COUNTY TREASURER: Incumbent Republican Jack Anderson beat Bob Flannery.

LAKE COUNTY BOARD: Dist. 2 - Democrat John Balen and Republican Matt Miholic. Dist. 3 - Republican Jim LaBelle and Democrat Sam Payne. Dist. 4 - Republicans Norm Geary and Char Kiesgen. Dist. 5 - Republicans Mike Graham and Carol Calabresa. Dist. 6 - Republicans Bruce Hansen and John Reindl.

All judges on the retention ballot kept their seats. All unopposed candidates, of course, won.

Election Proves Voter Independence

by CHARLES JOHNSTON
Managing Editor

LAKE COUNTY VOTERS showed that they will not support a candidate who runs a viciously negative campaign. Republican Judy Koehler was soundly rebuked by Lake County voters by a margin of 55-45 percent after running one of the most negative campaigns since Bernie Epton ran against Harold Washington for Mayor of Chicago.

There were many hopeful signs for Lake County Democrats following Tuesday's election. Voters showed that now, more than ever before, they will readily split their ballots to support who they believe to be the quality candidate. Linda Hess won the county clerk's race, Alan Dixon took Lake County's vote in the U.S. Senate race, and Neil Hartigan took 47 percent of the Lake County vote for attorney general.

All were Democrats and all were perceived as quality candidates. In the case of Neil Hartigan, his regional office in Waukegan has been widely used and his advocacy of protecting the environment struck a responsive chord among West Lake County voters.

Linda Hess had to work far harder to come up with 51.5 percent of the vote than most similarly qualified incumbent candidates would have to. That is because she was the only credible countywide Democratic candidate who went the distance. The Republicans were able to target her and put the bulk of their efforts toward her race.

Bob Flannery, the late Democratic entry for treasurer, was an attractive candidate. His was a case of too little, too late to ever be a serious challenge. He may very well be an important part of the Democrats' future in this county, though.

Sander Stagman started out with a lot of people considering him. Somewhere along the line, he began to see dark visions of Mickey Babcox as a murderer and defender of the mob. As his charges got wilder and his evidence thinner, voters turned away from him in droves. He is probably fortunate that, in the end, voters did not take him seriously. If they did, Sheriff Mickey Babcox would probably have a darn good case against him for libel. As it is, about the only thing that could generate sympathy for Stagman would be for Babcox to take action against him for his wild allegations.

For years, Democrats have talked about how hard it is to win office in Lake County. Voters in this area have shown, a powerful streak of independence, though. I suspect that if the Democrats emphasize candidate recruitment and develop a strong policy committee, they may find it easier than they think. They can't leave good candidates like Hess in a position to be targeted, though.

Schaffer Urge Seniors: File

State Sen. Jack Schaffer (R-McHenry County) reminds senior citizens to file Circuit Breaker applications by Nov. 15 to receive their checks by the end of the year.

Circuit Breaker grants are rebates for taxes paid the previous year.

"To receive a rebate on taxes paid in 1985, an application must be sent before midnight, Dec. 31," Schaffer said. "However, the earlier you apply, the earlier your check will arrive if you meet eligibility requirements."

Applicants must be Illinois citizens with annual household incomes of less than $14,000. They must also be 65 or older, or at least 16 and permanently disabled.

Application forms are available by contacting the Dept. of Revenue at (800)732-8866; the Lt. Governor's Senior Action Centers at (800)252-6565; or the Disabled Individuals Assistance Line at (800)233-3425.

FIFTY YEARS AGO: November 5, 1936

We all know that women tend to live longer than men. Here's the complicated way to make that same statement, as reported by the Antioch News. "Statistics reveal that for every three men between seventy-five and eighty years old in the United States, there are four women. For every four men (still with me on this one?) more than eighty-five, there are seven women."

The Marguerite Beauty Shoppe was advertising its Roux Shampoo Tint, one of the older New Ways to Beautiful Color.

We all knew that he would never win any congeniality awards, but the Antioch News reported that in 1720 the Rev. Cotton Mather wrote the words "Be Short!" over his study door. It proved to be an effective way to eliminate both boring visitors and bothersome basketball players.

TWENTY YEARS AGO: November 3, 1966

The first snowfall of the 1966 winter fell to the ground in Antioch. The Antioch News reported that the snow caught many citizens off guard, sending them spinning on the slippery film of ice. Since history has a tendency of repeating itself, let's be prepared for that first snow on both sidewalks and streets.

The Antioch News called it a "grim battle," but the Sequoits ground out a 12-6 victory over arch-rival Warren. Bill Sheldon was the Antioch hero for the day, as he scored both Sequoit touchdowns. The win was made even sweeter by the fact that Antioch had lost to Warren on their last six meetings.

TEN YEARS AGO: November 3, 1976

This blurb appeared on the front page of the Antioch News: "You may not agree with Ronald Reagan. But you'll want to read his column each Wednesday. People will be talking about it all week." Well, maybe people did talk about it all week, so let's hear what our President had to say. "At every stop, Jimmy Carter talked about 'leadership,' as if constant invocation of the word would bring the mantle to his shoulders. Though many of his crowds were warm and responsive, there was nothing of the 'electricity' that reporters look for as a sure sign of a strong campaign finish." Good call, Mr. President. I guess you can say you told us so.

The Sequoits, in an off year, were looking for a win at Grayslake to bring their season record to 4-5.

Along the way with ANNIE MAE

I'D LIKE TO recognize Asst. Fire Chief Wayne Parthun for all of the great work he's been doing for both Allendale School and the Antioch Fire Dept. Not only is Wayne a dedicated and personable fellow, but he's also one of the best dressed fireman I've ever seen.

WITH CHRISTMAS and Thanksgiving so close, it's time to start planning for the holidays. Each week I'll give you a little hint or tidbit of advice that has gotten me through some pretty tough family outings. Listen to this and it will save you a lot of grief. Never, and I mean never, play a game during the holidays that pits the men against the women. We did that last Christmas with Trivial Pursuit and nearly lost our voices due to the shouting.

I UNDERSTAND that Ted DeRousse and Steve Wapon of Antioch High School were in a pretty tricky situation not long ago. Seems that at the student walk-out where 500 students gathered in the auditorium, Ted spoke for the teachers and Steve for the administration. It might not mean much if they weren't good friends and fellow coaches on the football field. They handled it like pros, though, to prove that we've got a good school in Antioch. Let's hope things get straightened out soon.

CONGRATULATIONS were sent from Marge and Don Gaa of Antioch to the new editor of the Antioch News-Reporter. He seems all right, though I've learned never to trust anyone under 70.

When Halloween Ends It's Gotta Be Christmas Time

Notes & News

by CAROLYN HAMMOND

Wasn't it nice that the children had a decent day for "trick or treating"? Weren't their costumes cute? A lot of mothers must have worked really hard to make them! Weekend football fans had to dress warm, but that's to be expected. Now that Halloween's over it must be Christmas time. Christmas merchandise has been displayed in some stores since the school supplies were bought out. What happened to Thanksgiving? At any rate, you'd better start making out your shopping list so you don't miss the upcoming events:

The sixth annual Gingerbread House Christmas Bazaar will be held Nov. 21, 22, and 23 at the Antioch Scout House, 741 Main St., Antioch. Start saving your money now; they always have such beautiful hand-made items for sale.

The Antioch Library Friends are sponsoring a Discovery Toy Sale Saturday, Nov. 22 from 12:30 to 4:30 p.m. at the Antioch Twp. Library. It will be an easy way to shop for any child on your Christmas list. Orders will be taken with deliveries a few weeks later.

Give yourself a treat and take a trip to Water Tower Place in Chicago with the Antioch Library Friends on Dec. 6. A bus will leave the Antioch High School parking lot at 9 a.m. and return at 5 p.m. The cost is $10; seating is limited. For more information, call (312) 395-0542. Reservation deadline is Nov. 22.

"Footlights & Fancy Free '86" got off to a fantastic start this weekend. For those of you over 21 years old who missed it, you have another chance. Doors will re-open at 6 p.m. Nov. 7 and 8 for another two nights of great fun, food and entertainment. Be there!

Antioch Grade School has a "major" celebrity in its midst. Third grade teacher Eugene Shea was recently awarded the honorary rank of major for his untiring contribution to the advancement of baton twirling. Mr. Shea was honored by National Baton Twirling Assn. International, Inc. with the award known as "The Major," the first ever awarded for lifetime achievement. Shea has been a baton teacher in the Waukegan area for the last 45 years and is a former national champion twirler.

A record of a different kind must have been set at Mavis and Denis Dingdale's Antioch home from July 10 to Oct. 16 this year. Denis' parents, Nellie and Jesse Dingdale, were here visiting from England. The four of them, along with Maybelle Kopta, Mavis' mother, went through 3,400 (yes, that's right) tea bags as well as seven pounds of loose English tea. How the English like their tea! Says Mavis, "Even though Mother came from England and likes her tea, she got so tired of it she switched to hot chocolate." Can you blame her? That's one big tea party!

In sports, the Antioch Varsity Sequoits tried to play the role of "spoiler" this weekend against Niles North's Vikings and were one penalty away from stopping a Viking scoring drive. But it wasn't to be as Niles North beat Antioch 7-6.

In other high school football games, the sophomores, Freshmen A and Freshmen B all beat Niles North. Outstanding for the frosh offense was quarterback John DeBarnardis, while defensive honors go to linebacker Phil Dempsey.

The Antioch Viking Junior Tackle Football Lightweight and Heavyweight Traveling Teams are the North Division Champions of the Junior Football League of Northern Illinois. They each earned the honor by beating second place Round Lake.

For the Heavyweights: Antioch Vikings 38, Round Lake 12.

Round Lake scored first early in the first quarter on an interception run-back by Greg Collis. The conversion attempt failed. At the end of the first quarter it was Round Lake 6, Antioch 0.

In the second quarter, fullback Frank Hannigan scored once on a six-yard run and again on a 40-yard run. Conversion attempts failed. Running back Dale Morgan added another with a 32-yard run. Adam Perry kicked a two-point conversion. Another TD was made on a 16-yard pass from quarterback Ken Paddock to split-end Norm Weldon. Nate Ovitt kicked a two-point conversion. The score at the half was Antioch 28, Round Lake 6.

In the third quarter, Nate Ovitt kicked off deep toward the end-zone. Two plays later, linebacker Jason DeBruhl tackled the Round Lake quarterback in their end zone for a safety and two more points. On the ensuing Round Lake kick-off, Scott Johnson picked up the ball and ran it back 55 yards for a TD. Nate Ovitt converted for two more points. Round Lake scored once more and failed on the conversion. The third quarter score of 38-12 was the final score as no scores were made during the fourth quarter.

Outstanding for the defense were linebackers Gregg Loecher, Jason DeBruhl and Ken Paddock. Other standouts were defensive guard Jerney Smith and kicker Nate Ovitt.

For the Lightweights: Antioch Vikings 13, Round Lake 0.

Antioch scored on two TD passes from quarterback Tom Lehn to end Timm Clark. The extra point was run in by Garrett Horn. Also outstanding on defense was Timm Clark with three interceptions.

Both the Lightweight and Heavyweight teams will play for the League Championship against South Division champions Highland Park next Sunday, Nov. 9 at Highland Park. Starting time is noon for the Lightweights, with the Heavyweight game immediately following.

The Featherweight Viking League ended their season with their annual All-Star game. This year the BEagles beat the RaiHawks 19-6.

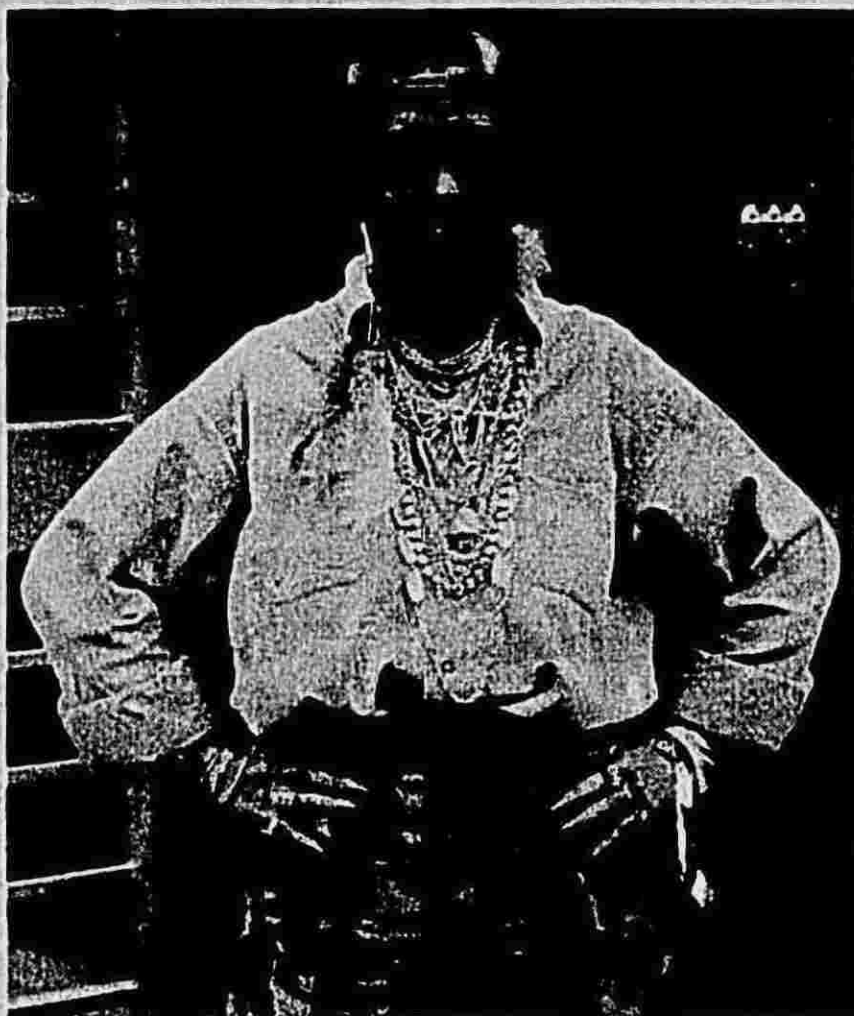

Paper Names Winners

Una Fox and Dortha Chase, both of Antioch, were winners in the Lakeland Newspaper's oldest newspaper contest.

Fox and Chase tied as winners of the contest, since they both submitted a newspaper insert which appeared in the Sept. 1, 1904 edition of the Antioch News.

As a result of this contest, Lakeland Newspapers will donate $100 to the Lakes Region Historical Society in their name.

CLC Offers Help For Government Contracts

Small businesses have a difficult time trying to cut through red tape to identify government projects to bid on. Extensive research and paperwork hampers their ability to sell products to the government.

Now, Automated Procurement Services, an arm of the College of Lake County's Center for Economic Development, has obtained a software package that can assist business and industry in selling their products and services to the government and can aid them in getting on the right bidder's list. CLC is the second community college in the state to utilize this software.

The software system matches a company's product information to appropriate agencies in the database and prepares a bidder's mailing list, federal forms, cover letters and envelopes.

This process, taking anywhere from two days to two weeks to do by hand, is accomplished in minutes by the software.

The system continually researches government agencies nationwide in order to develop and maintain a database. This listing is much more complete than those in the basic government and military publications.

According to Glen Morgan, newly appointed training and development consultant for CLC's Automated Procurement Services, this system enables companies to view past government purchases of similar products and services before they bid, enabling greater cost accuracy.

"Many businesses do not understand the procurement process or that selling to the government can increase their profits," says Morgan. "There is money to be made selling to the government if you know how to go about it."

For more information on CLC's Automated Procurement Services, call (312)223-3615.

Gander's Business Increases

Gander Mountain, Inc. (NASDAQ:GNDR) reported a 39 percent increase in net income and a 31 percent increase in sales for the first quarter, ended Sept. 30, as compared to last year's first quarter.

Net income for the first quarter was $514,000, or 19 cents per share on sales of $13,241,000 as compared to net income of $371,000 (before an extraordinary tax credit) or 19 cents per share on sales of $10,100,000 for the comparable quarter last year.

The increase in shares is attributed to the company's Initial Public Offering on April 2, in which 1,035,000 shares of common stock were sold; 810,000 shares were sold by the company and 225,000 shares by stockholders.

ABC Council Needs Helpers

Lake County residents with knowledge of or interest in the continuing development of community services in the areas of mental health, drug and alcohol abuse, or developmental disabilities are encouraged to apply for membership on the Lake County Advisory Board and Coordinating Council for Mental Health, Substance Abuse, and Developmental Disabilities Services (AB/C Council). The council serves in an advisory capacity to the Lake County Board of Health and also serves as a coordinating council for these services in Lake County. Interested persons should call Ginny Fagen, AB/C Council Coordinator, at (312) 689-6704 or address inquiries to the AB/C Council office, 2303 Dodge Ave., Waukegan, 60085.

The AB/C Council is responsible for developing a comprehensive plan for mental health, substance abuse and developmental disabilities services in Lake County and has completed the plan for 1985-87. Members annually review and comment on Grant-In-Aid requests submitted by Lake County agencies to the Illinois Dept. of Mental Health/Developmental Disabilities (DMH/DD) and the Dept. of Alcoholism and Substance Abuse (DASA). In this way, the council helps to assure that state funding is secured and utilized by community agencies to address the priority needs of Lake County individuals. The council also receives and reviews proposals for Lake County Board of Health grant awards to community agencies.

According to council coordinator Ginny Fagen, the council offers opportunities for cooperation between professionals, agencies and consumer representatives; collaboration to achieve common goals; and coordination of comprehensive services at the county level. These are keys to successfully serving the community in a period of relatively fixed or diminishing resources, which is challenging agencies and communities to find innovative ways to finance and provide services. The council offers community members a chance to participate in the on-going development of a community-based system of comprehensive services.

Community members are encouraged to participate in council committees, which deal with single disability areas (mental health, substance abuse or developmental disabilities) or with a single area of interest common to all three disability groups (legislation, planning, grants). One does not need to be a council member to participate on a council committee.

Breaking The Bank

Helping Out The Customer

Selecting just the right frame and matting for a picture can be a difficult decision when faced with an entire wall of various designs, as Ben Franklin saleswoman Beth Johnson knows. Students Attend Confab Eight Lake Villa Grade and three Antioch High School students were invited to participate in the National Council for Geographic Education Convention.

The students were: R.J. Weinke (fifth grade), Michael Huyett (fifth grade), Mike Mehnert (sixth grade), Duane Strantz (seventh grade), Cindy Contois (eighth grade), Briant Hume (eighth grade), Scott Schaeffer (eighth grade), Mike Tolley (eighth grade), Dean Bazata (freshman), John Mehnert (senior), and Wade Kilman (senior). Geographic software was demonstrated to educators by the students in the workshop session titled, "Computers, Kids and Geography."

They explained the concepts of the program and critiqued it from their points of view. The Oct. 11 session was designed to provide educators with the opportunity to preview geographic software and to help them learn what students thought of the programs--as enrichment and learning tools, for enjoyment, and appropriateness for grade level.

The session coordinator, Judith Bock, said the students took their responsibility seriously and did an excellent job discussing the software. Participants of the convention appreciated hearing the students' opinions.

THIS WEEK'S HOROSCOPE

BY SALOME

Weekly tip: Friendship is a two-way commitment. Aries (Mar. 21-Apr. 19) Domestic situations improve. Face the upcoming holiday season with more enthusiasm and less anxiety. Sure, things can go wrong, but most goes well.

Taurus (Apr. 20-May 20) Everyone admires your capacity for loyalty and trust. But expect to have that capacity tested in a very surprising way.

Gemini (May 21-June 20) Be more selfish in your behalf. Take more time to do things that you enjoy. Start by putting your name at the top of your priorities list.

Cancer (June 21-Jul 20) A tendency to demand more of a friend than he or she can give to you can alienate that friend for good. The rules you live by may be too strict.

Leo (Jul 21-Aug. 22) Fix up the Lion's Den 'cause kin are fixin' to come for holiday visits. Deeper ties are forged as memories are recalled between and among loved ones.

Virgo (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) Continued positive reports come through as you complete each new facet of your tasks. The work may be difficult but the rewards will make up for it.

Libra (Sept. 23-Oct 22) Take heart. Just when you think there's no way to solve a perplexing problem, an easy solution comes from a previously overlooked source. A special friend shares your triumph.

Scorpio (Oct. 23-Nov. 21) A long-time admirer makes a sincere overture. Overcome your shyness and respond positively, as it opens opportunities for expanding social life.

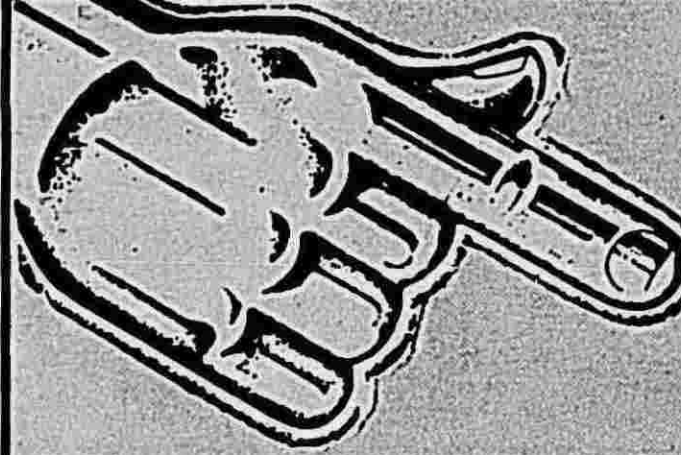

Sagittarius (Nov. 22-Dec. 21) A real friend won't put pressure on you to act more quickly than you can. Going step-by-step is slower, but you're less likely to fail.

Capricorn (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) The best way to handle a nasty tongue assault is to ignore it. Those who know you know the truth. Others will soon be able to spot the lies.

Aquarius (Jan. 20-Feb. 18) A loved one's problems may weigh heavily on you for a while. But cheer up. Soon, both your burdens will grow lighter.

Pisces (Feb. 19-Mar. 20) It looks a bit dark now, but you'll soon swim into brighter waters. Meanwhile, make plans for the big holiday season ahead. Good things await you.

Rachel Withdraws His Shorter Sentence Plea

by GLORIA DAVIS

Tory Rachel's hearing for a reduction of a 12-year prison sentence that he is serving for the rape of a Salem woman, in 1981, set for Oct. 24 in Kenosha County Court, did not take place.

According to Kenosha County Dist. Atty. Robert Zapf, Rachel's attorney, Gary Sumpter, Kenosha, had requested the hearing on the basis of documents allegedly contradicting the expert psychological testimony given at his trial that stated that Rachel "showed no apparent signs of mental illness and was basically well adjusted."

This testimony was given by Dr. Ciotola, a psychologist for the Racine-Kenosha Div. of Corrections.

Zapf petitioned the court to have Sumpter supply him with copies of these documents before the hearing. The court so ordered, giving a deadline for the turn over of the documents to Zapf of Oct. 11.

Zapf said that he never received the documents and was not informed that the hearing would not take place. The first he knew that it was not on the court calendar was when he checked the night before.

He has since been told by Sumpter that Rachel had decided not to turn the alleged documents over at this time.

Neither Rachel or his attorney have said whether there will be a future request for such a hearing.

Rachel has served one year of this sentence in the Fox Lake Correctional Inst., in Fox Lake, Wis., after serving two years of three consecutive six-year sentences and four months of another nine-month sentence subsequent to being convicted of taking sexual liberties with three Lake County minors.

Some of his Lake County victims had said they intended to attend the hearing. One victim from Lilymore, who claimed to have been harassed by Rachel's family during her trial, said she hoped to appear at the hearing with records from his Lake County convictions. As it stands, Rachel, who only served two years out of a sentenced 18(three six year sentences to run concurrently) in Illinois, has served one out of a possible six(with good behavior) in Wisconsin.

If he carries through on his request for the shortening of the 12-year sentence he is now serving, and his request is granted, he could be out of prison sooner than the minimum five years he now stands to serve.

OK Grant for Teen Conference

Gov. James Thompson announced that the Lake County Community Action Project of Waukegan is one of 31 agencies statewide to receive a grant for a Teen Leadership Conference Program. The Lake County office received $2,500.

"The Teen Leadership Conference Program is designed to provide Illinois' teenagers with access to a wide range of support services," Thompson said. These grants help local communities become involved in finding solutions to important problems for teenagers and permit them to address those concerns in a manner acceptable to the communities.

"The Teen Leadership Conference Program is now in its second year," he said, "and it has provided thousands of Illinois teenagers with information about the resources available to them, and given them renewed motivation to take charge of their lives and make healthy decisions for the present and the future."

Subjects addressed in the workshops include pregnancy; parenthood and sexuality; alcohol and substance abuse; family crisis and stress management; nutrition and eating disorders; self-esteem; life-planning skills; and other issues of local concern.

An estimated 8,000 teenagers are expected to participate in the conferences. "Thousands of other teenagers will be helped indirectly, as those who attend the conferences return to their schools, share what they learned and assist in setting up local support programs," said Dr. Bernard J. Turnock, director of the Illinois Dept. of Public Health.

Revise Refund Policy

The College of Lake County Board of Trustees approved a new tuition refund policy at its Oct. 28 board meeting.

The new policy provides for a prorated refund for students who are unable to attend class due to an extended hospital stay or other uncontrollable and unforeseen circumstances. To qualify for the refund, a student must submit an documented application.

The Board also accepted a grant from the Illinois Board of Higher Education which will support college activities designed to educate lake county women about careers in fields which have traditionally been the choice of men.

The grant totals $14,750 and is in effect through June 1987. The grant may be renewed an additional year if funding is available.
